MIDWEST HIT BY WINTRY BLASTS

Snow, Near-Zero Weather Visits Chicago, Cold Wave Travels East

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Sweeping out of the northwest where yesterday it brought snow and near-zero temperatures, winter made its debut in Chicago today en route east.

A warm rain falling at dawn, had given way to a leaden wintry sky by 9:30 o'clock and a sharp wind which howled its message of coming cold around corners. Thermometers dropped seven degrees to 57 this morning and were expected to crash to the freezing point by nightfall.

The cold wave, weather bureau officials said, will travel rapidly east striking probably by tonight.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—On the heels of a heavy mist, winter settled down on Minneapolis and surrounding territory this morning, bringing the temperature to 24 degrees above and blanketing the ground with three inches of snow.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—The first snow of the year fell in Omaha and parts of Nebraska Thursday night and Friday morning. Railroad trains arriving at Omaha from the west were covered with snow. The prediction for today by the local weather bureau is "probably snow."

KIWANIANS TOLD OF AUTO SERVICE

Member Southern California Club Tells Kiwanians Of Difference

The service given to members of the Automobile Club of Southern California was contrasted with the service rendered motorists who are not members of the club, in an address delivered before the Kiwanis club today by Roscoe A. Goodcell, of the Automobile club.

Mr. Goodcell traced the history of the club from its organization in 1900 to the present time, the membership today being in excess of 103,000 motorists, and the employes numbering 1,000. He told of the work of the various departments of the club and how they aided the motorists.

30,000 Claims

In the past year 30,000 claims have been handled by the legal department, he said. Over 120,000 insurance policies have been written for members on cars. The sign posting department has placed more than 120,000 signs in Southern California, and signs have been put on roads to Kansas City, Omaha and El Paso.

Engineers of the club are constantly working to get good roads in the state, and the legal department endeavors to have laws passed that will be of benefit to the motorists, he said. The theft bureau has recovered $297,000 worth of stolen cars in the past year and apprehended 197 thieves.

Attendance Prize

He told of an automobile run made in 1900, when twenty cars entered the course from Los Angeles to Pomona and back, and time limit one day. Nineteen of the twenty starters failed to return in the alloted time, he said, and the other car got as far as Lincoln Heights on the return trip.

Attendance prize, donated by Elwood Ingledue, was won by Dr. Jack Anderson. P. J. Hayselden spoke on the good roads meeting to be held tonight at Oakmont Country club. J. Arthur Myers told of the need of employment for members of the Glendale Symphony orchestra and Choral club.

Chest Campaign

President A. L. Baird outlined the campaign for the Community Chest drive. W. L. Truitt announced the next open forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce would be sponsored by the Glendale Realty board on November 24 at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. William Bode, general chairman of the Hallo-Kiwanis party, told of the success of the annual event and personally thanked all who participated.

It was announced the meeting next week would be held on Wednesday instead of Friday on account of the state convention at Santa Barbara November 14 and 15. The Pasadena club will be in charge of the meeting, it was announced.

Price of Gasoline Drops Half Cent In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Gasoline dropped half a cent in Los Angeles today. Two of the larger oil companies, the Standard Oil Co., and the Union Oil Co., marked down their prices on motor fuel from 17 cents to 16½ cents per gallon. The oil companies refused to comment on the cause of the reduction.

GALE SWEEPS COAST OF OREGON

Shipping Is Tied Up, Moving Inland Storm Causes Loss Of Two Lives, Property

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Gales which last night swept the Oregon coast and tied up shipping, moved inland early today and roared through Portland and the surrounding country.

Danish ship Chile and Admiral Fiske were forced to remain outside the Columbia river all night due to the wind which whipped the bar into a fury. Other ships also were held up by the storm, the Federal Telegraph Co. reported.

Southeast Gale

North Head weather bureau station reported a southeast gale of 65 miles per hour at the mouth of the Columbia river last night.

A driving rain accompanied the wind here today, which attained a velocity estimated at 35 miles an hour.

Two workmen are believed to have lost their lives last night at Bull Run river, east of Portland, when a steam shovel was pitched into the river by a sudden landslide. The men were I. L. Schnively and N. E. Benyon.

Trees, telephone and flag poles were blown down by the early morning gale in Portland. A 70-foot construction elevator was toppled over, taking down a high voltage and telephone wires with it.

WOMAN HONORED AT CLUB MEETING

Los Angeles Federation Head Made Member of Glendale Parliamentary Body

Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Glendale club woman and president of the Los Angeles district, California Federation of Women's clubs, today was elected honorary member of the Women's Parliamentary Law club at its meeting in the public library. Mrs. Toll said in her acceptance speech it was the first time such an honor had been conferred on her by any club in the district.

In speaking of the place occupied by parliamentary procedure in club women's lives, Mrs. Toll said: "Every member of a club should study parliamentary law, not because she thinks some day she may be president, but in order that she may have sufficient knowledge of procedure to support her president." She also spoke of the way women are going ahead of men in the study and use of parliamentary procedure.

Education Week

Mrs. C. G. Putnam, curator of the maids and young matrons department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, announced plans for observance of National Educational Week and of the book plate contest. The Law club voted to give a prize in the contest. It was also voted to pay the club's Y. M. C. A. pledge.

Mrs. Harry Greenwalt, president, directed study and drill in which thirty members and Mrs. Toll took part. Mrs. Greenwalt announced that in January Mrs. Julia D. Phelps, noted parliamentarian, will address the club. In February Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, parliamentarian for the Los Angeles district, will be an honored guest of the club women.

SENT TO PRISON

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Maurice Foster, known as the "polite" burglar, was sentenced here today to serve from one to five years in prison.

BOXING BILL LEADING IN RETURNS

Ten of 18 Amendments on State Ballot Appear To Have Carried

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—On the face of returns today the voters Tuesday appear to have voted favorably on ten of the eighteen amendments on the ballot. Six appear definitely defeated and two are in doubt.

No. 1, affecting the taxation of the state motor bus lines, was defeated, late country returns piling up a majority of probably 60,000 against the measure.

No. 2, raising the salary of legislators, was an easy winner by more than 100,000.

No. 3, affecting the deposit of public monies, was a big winner.

No. 4 may reach 200,000 favorable majority. It relates to the inferior courts.

Boxing Bill Leads

No. 5, which contained a joker which would have had the effect of invalidating the state veteran legislation, was badly defeated.

No. 6, covering the payment of personal taxes, won handily.

No. 7, dealing with boxing, apparently had a safe lead today.

No.8, allowing additional deputies for county officers, was in doubt.

No. 9, providing for the taxation of foreign stocks and bonds, carried.

No. 10, providing tax exemption for insurance companies, was defeated.

Fish District Wins

No. 11, safeguarding the Klamath fish district from power development, sponsored by the state fish and game commission, won, probably by 200,000.

No. 12, affecting municipal courts, won.

No. 13, providing a poll tax, is in doubt and may require the official count to determine.

No. 14, dealing with tax-exempt bonds, lost.

No. 15, dealing with excepting airports from taxation, lost.

No. 16, the water and power act, lost, probably by 400,000.

No. 17, affecting the right of eminent domain, won.

No. 18, affecting voters' change of residence, easily won.

Bank Objects to Name Used In Rum-Running

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Guaranty Trust Co. of New York today appealed to the courts for an injunction to prevent Sir Broderick Hartwell from issuing any circulars regarding his rum-running enterprise which might make it appear that the bank approved his venture. Sir Broderick has been selling stock in his rum-running business and the circulars told of huge profits to be made through smuggling whiskey into the United States. The English nobleman, through his counsel, voluntarily promised to withdraw the circular in question.

Alleged Kidnapers of Baby June Find Mexico

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Lois Pollan, wife of Clayton Pollan, Detroit and Pittsburgh advertising man, who is accused by police of kidnaping June, six-year-old foster daughter of Mrs. Elsie Shosted, was believed today to have escaped with the child into Mexico. Mrs. Pollan, who is a sister of Mrs. Shosted, is the child's mother, Mrs. Shosted having won June's custody after four court battles, three staged here and one in Duluth, Minn.

Places Value of Husband's Love at One Million Dollars

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Setting a price of $1,000,000 on her husband's love, Mrs. Rosellia O. Butler today brought suit here against La Rue Wallace Jenkins for alleged alienation of the affections of Cooley Butler, former Duluth, Minnesota capitalist. Mrs. Butler recently sued for divorce, claiming in the heart balm complaint that the defendant caused Butler to leave her.

LEGION HEAD TELLS OF PROGRAM

Commander Drain Sends Letter to Coolidge on Organization's Aims

By GEORGE E. DURNO
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Fundamental principles for which the American Legion is striving in its effort to establish lasting world peace were outlined to President Coolidge today in a letter from Colonel James A. Drain, national commander of the Legion.

The letter was in reply to a recent communication from the president suggesting that the Legion emphasize the need of peace above everything else in its observance of Armistice day, November 11.

Enactment of Congress of a universal draft law, establishment of a "competent world court" and a further disarmament conference constitutes, in the opinion of the Legion, the essential steps in the direction of a lasting peace.

With Rest of World

Until these are accomplished, however, the Legion believes American defenses—on land, on sea and in the air—should be kept up to the standards of every other nation in the world.

In his discussion of the purposes of Armistice day, Colonel Drain also took occasion to urge the president by proclamation to set aside November 11 for national observance and to issue an executive order declaring a holiday for all federal employes.

Colonel Drain was assured by Coolidge that achievement of peace was the underlying principles upon which the American Legion was founded.

Called Peace Measure

"To this end," he said, "the Legion has long advocated and will press for enactment at the coming session of Congress of what is popularly known as the universal draft bill, which would place on all citizens an equal obligation in war by utilization through the government of man power to fight, man power to work, factory power to produce, and money power to finance.

"This is a peace measure because it places the burden of war equally upon all citizens. It is a preparedness measure, because it provides the nation with the means for defending itself, if forced into war, with a maximum of efficiency and a miimum of cost."

GIVE PROGRAM AT CHURCH TONIGHT

Sunday School Class Plans To Raise Balance of Building Pledge

A program being given to raise the balance of the pledge for the Sunday school annex has been arranged for presentation tonight at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church, corner of Pacific avenue and Harvard street, under the auspices of Mrs. Leslie Tronsier's class of boys.

Mrs. Virginia Freeman's singers composed of Misses Gladys White, Juanita Claycomb, Doris Mowett and Claycomb and Mrs. A. B. Bonham will appear in vocal trios, quartettes and solos. Mrs. Roberta T. Young will be the accompanist. Wadsworth Harris, entertainer for the Y. M. C. A. overseas, during the World war, has also donated his services and will appear in several numbers.

After the entertainment, sandwiches, home-made cake, chocolate and coffee will be sold at a nominal sum. The public is invited to attend.

SPLIT OVER NEW TORY CABINET

Leading British Newspapers Give Mixed Reception To Party Heads

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

LONDON, Nov. 7. — Stanley Baldwin, head of the new Tory government, has struck trouble within a week of the party's heavy victory at the polls. His cabinet, which received the king's approval yesterday afternoon, has met with a mixed reception from Tory and opposition press.

"Die hard" Tories of the extreme right wing, are openly angry because Winston Churchill has been given the most important post—as chancellor of the exchequer—while other Tories hopefully maintain that it shows Baldwin will be independent of the reactionary cliques within the Conservative party.

Even the most loyal Tories admit that it is unpleasant to have Baldwin give the most important places in his cabinet to Lloyd George coalitionists — Austen Chamberlain, designated foreign secretary; Sir Laming Worthington Evans, secretary of war; Earl Birkenhead, secretary for India.

Predicts Party Split

Lord Beaverbrook's London Express is hostile because Sir Robert Horne was not included in the new cabinet and predicts a party split.

"The new cabinet is born in a blizzard which may before long test its infantile strength," The Express says.

The ultra-conservative London Morning Post expresses the hope that Baldwin will refresh the cabinet with new recruits. It declares the Tories must procure the support of the working people and states that the masses are bitterly hostile to Churchill.

Sees Justification

The London Chronicle, a Lloyd George organ, sees justification for the coalition members of the cabinet, while The Westminster Gazette, a Liberal, says "the cabinet may weather the storm long enough to give the country a breathing spell."

The London Daily News, a Liberal, says "the new cabinet compares favorably with the scratch organization of Baldwin's last cabinet."

The Times expresses the hope that Baldwin will avail himself of young members of the Tory party while the Telegraph regrets the absence of Sir Robert Horne.

FIFTEEN IN RACE FOR DIRECTORS

Nominating Petitions Being Circulated Today; Mail Ballots November 15

At least fifteen prominent Glendale business and professional men will seek the six vacant seats on the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Nominating petitions for S. C. Singer, George Lyons, W. B. Kelly, Frank Fox, F. Reinecke, W. L. Twining, George L. Kaeding, W. G. Lauderdale, Henry A. Michel, W. A. Tanner, R. E. Johnston, Dan Kelty, H. M. Butts, W. L. Truitt, and Dr. T. C. Young, were circulated today.

Each petition must be signed by at least ten members of the chamber in good standing and must be turned over to Secretary Howard I. Wood by Monday, November 10, under the rule of the organization. Whether or not others will seek directorships is not known at the present time.

Will Mail Ballots

Ballots containing a list of all those who qualify for nomination will be mailed to each member November 15. All ballots must be returned by November 25.

Outgoing members of the board of directors whose places are to be filled are George Bentley, Frank L. Fox, W. E. Hewitt, R. F. Kitterman, A. R. Eastman, P. J. Hayselden, E. C. Pendroy and L. H. Wilson. Six places will be filled by election with two appointments to be made by the new board.

British Submarines In Crash Crossing Channel

LONDON, Nov. 7.—British submarines K-2 and H-29 collided today in the English channel. Both were seriously damaged but managed to reach port at Wreath.

Yes, They Do Come Back

STANLEY BALDWIN, Britain's new premier, head of the Tory government. He was forced out by Ramsay Macdonald nine months ago. Now he is back. But, according to today's cables, his rule has struck a snag already. His cabinet is received with a mixed reception by the leading newspapers.

CONDITION OF SEN. LODGE CRITICAL

Senator Again Unconscious But Vitality Has Not Perceptibly Changed

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's condition was said to be "unchanged" at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

At noon today, when the senator heard a whistle blow, he reached from his bed and took Dr. Cunningham's watch from his pocket, as though to check up on the time. He then lapsed into unconsciousness.

The following bulletin was issued this morning at the Charles Gates hospital by Dr. John H. Cunningham:

"While still unconscious, Senator Lodge's vitality has not perceptibly changed during the last twenty-four hours."

Senator Lodge has been without nourishment nearly forty-eight hours. He has been unconscious for almost two days. He was stricken with a stroke Wednesday noon.

GAS BLAST BURNS ARE FATAL TO ONE

Z. Hammond, Painter, Dies At Hospital; Injured In Explosion Oct. 31

Z. Hammond of 734 West Hawthorne street, a painter, who was seriously burned on October 31, when a gas explosion wrecked a bungalow in the court at 525-29 West Riverdale drive, died at 2 o'clock this morning, Friday, November 7, 1924, at the Glendale hospital, aged 37 years.

The body has been removed to the L. G. Scovern Co. undertaking parlors, and a coroner's inquest will be held 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, November 10, it is reported from Glendale police headquarters.

Working on House

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lizzie Hammond. No funeral arrangements have yet been made. He was at work on a ladder, painting the house, when the explosion occurred, according to statements of the four employes of the Southern California Gas Co., who were said to be making a meter installation at the time of the blast.

Three of these men have recovered sufficiently to be removed to their homes. Joe Hill of 4132 Parkdale avenue is still a patient at the Glendale hospital.

RAINMAKER HATFIELD SECURED

Glendale Man on Contract To Produce Moisture In Kern County

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—A contract has been signed to produce 2½ inches of rain in Kern county between November 24 and December 20 by "Rainmaker" Hatfield of Glendale, according to word received in Los Angeles today.

Hatfield entered the contract with the Kern county cattlemen's association and the sheepmen's association. He is to receive $4000 if rain is produced.

SUIT IS SETTLED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Details of how Dr. Robert Griffith tried to straighten the nose of Mrs. Minnie Chaplin, wife of Sydney Chaplin, film star, will not be revealed in court here, it was revealed today.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAIN IN BOTH HOUSES

Tax Reduction Will Come Up for Discussion; May Call Extra Session

By GEO. R. HOLMES
For International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—While belated returns continue to emphasize the magnitude of the Coolidge victory at the polls on Tuesday and it now appears certain that the Republicans will have clear majorities in both branches of the Sixty-ninth Congress, a close scrutiny of the line-up today disclosed that these majorities are absolutely dependable only in what might be described as "progressive causes."

To this extent at least, Senator La Follette and his followers remain a potentially powerful factor in both Houses of Congress, even though they have been shorn of the actual control which was theirs in the sixty-eighth Congress.

Republican Victory

Assuming that Senator Brookhart has finally won out in Iowa, that Senator Magnus Johnson has lost in Minnesota, and that a conservative Republican successor will fill the late Senator Brandegee's shoes in Connecticut, the new Senate will be composed of fifty-five Republicans, forty Democrats and one farmer-labor, allowing a Republican majority over all of fourteen.

Of this fourteen, however, there are still five of so-called La Follette group, La Follette himself, Brookhart of Iowa, Norris of Nebraska and Frazer and Ladd of North Dakota. There are more than half a dozen others who, while not affiliated with the so-called La Follette bloc, nevertheless have and probably will, continue to vote with it in matters that are weighed on Progressive scales. There is Schall, who defeated Magnus Johnson in Minnesota, for instance. He was known as one of the Progressive fire brands of Minnesota. Although a Republican, he once cast his vote for speaker for Champ Clark in preference to "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

Called 'Independents'

In South Dakota there are two senators who, while nominally "regular," can by no stretch of imagination be deemed "conservative" in the sense that eastern Republicans are conservative. They are Norbeck and McMasters. Then there are Howell of Nebraska, Johnson of California, Couzens of Michigan, Capper of Kansas and even Borah of Idaho.

All these can ordinarily be depended upon, yet they are just irregular enough to be classified as independents. They have voted

LATEST NEWS

COOLIDGE CARRIES STATE BY NEARLY 300,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Revised and practically complete figures for the state of California at noon today indicated that President Coolidge's lead over Senator La Follette in this state may not reach the 300,000 mark. Revision of returns in Los Angeles, which cut the Coolidge figure considerably, caused a reduction in the president's total. With a total of 7233 precincts out of 7464 tabulated, many of them semi-official counts, the vote stood: Coolidge, 703,417; La Follette 412,875; Davis 103,322. This gave President Coolidge a lead of 290,542. Missing precincts were small and widely scattered and not expected to affect final figures except to increase the Coolidge lead.

FRENCH PREMIER'S POLICIES APPROVED

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Premier Herriott was given a vote of confidence in the chamber of deputies this afternoon. The vote was 333 to 137. All the premier's policies were approved.

CANADIAN BANK DIRECTOR FOUND GUILTY

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Clarence F. Smith of Montreal, a director of the Home bank, was found guilty today of having negligently signed or approved a false return to the government in connection with the bank's affairs, which are in a receiver's hands. The court will sentence him on December 1.

PIMLICO, Md., Nov. 7.—Stimulus, owned by Marshall Field, won the historic $50,000 Pimlico futurity at one mile this afternoon from a field of eleven of the fastest two-year-olds in the United States. Star Lore, carrying the silks of William Ziegler, Jr., was second and Candy Kid, one of H. P. Whitney's entries, third.

BURBANK TO HELP INDUSTRIAL WORK

Survey Made for Adjoining City to Be Subject of Discussion Week

Realizing that industrial conditions along San Fernando road in Glendale and in Burbank are virtually identical and that what will benefit the one will benefit the other, the Glendale Chamber of Commerce industrial council will meet with Secretary Charleville of the Burbank chamber for a discussion of the recent industrial survey made in the smaller city.

The Burbank industrial survey, supervised by an expert, is considered one of the best and most complete ever made. Secretary Charleville will give a brief outline of the contents of the document at the meeting which will take place some time next week. Work of the local chamber committee will to a great extent be based in the future upon recommendations made to apply to Burbank.

Members of the industrial council are T. W. Watson, chairman; S. C. Packer, W. L. Truitt, D. J. Hanna, H. Park Arnold, J. M. Wilson, F. B. Ortman, H. C. Vandewater, C. R. Smurr, W. G. Lauderdale, W. E. Rouch. President W. E. Hewitt of the chamber will also attend the industrial meeting.

AT LA CRESCENTA

LA CRESCENTA, Nov. 7.—Annual election of officers for the coming year was the principal business at last night's meeting of the La Crescenta Improvement association held in La Crescenta schoolhouse auditorium. Nominating committee composed of Harvey Bissel, Fred Pinkus and Dr. E. N. Nettleton presented the following names: W. O. Kemper for president, Claude Hendricks secretary. Montrose State Bank treasurer. G. Ferris presented the following: Arthur Aiken for president, Fred Pinkus, vice-president; W. Letton, treasurer, and secretary, G. W. Farrand. Mrs. Anna Aiken proposed Mrs. Mary B. Darrow for secretary. Following officers were elected after Arthur Aiken and Fred Pinkus had withdrawn their names: President, W. D. Kemper; first vice-president, Harvey Bissel; secretary, Mrs. Mary B. Darrow; Charles P. Waste, treasurer Montrose State Bank, second vice-president. New members joining were: E. J. Fleming, Frank MacKay, Louise Moisant, Z. E. Escalle and Fred Anderson.

Replies from the California Auto club relative to posting Montrose avenue with speed limit and closed muffler signs and from the Glendale-Montrose railway in regard to removing the waiting station at the corner of Los Angeles and Montrose avenues were read. First stated that an investigation would be made. Mr. Collins said the investigation revealed that there were not sufficient homes to call this district residential but that school and grade signs would be put up. Glendale & Montrose railway stated that as the waiting room was on the private right of way and to move it would mean placing it on private property it felt no action could be taken. If arrangements could be made, it explained, to help the people of the district in this matter it would do so.

A petition presented by property owners of the south side of Montrose avenue for the reconditioning of their side of the street was indorsed by the association. The street at present is almost impassable. C. P. Waste asked that Arthur Aikens' name be incorporated in the minutes of the previous meeting where mention was made of the efficient work done by the local branch of the Angeles Protective association. Petition for retaking the territory west of Dunsmoor back into the La Crescenta school district is being circulated and will be presented to the proper authorities when filled.

On Dr. Nettleton's motion, retiring president and secretary were given a rising vote of thanks for their work during the past year. Mark Collins responded thanking members for the hearty co-operation given him. Dr. E. L. Wemple spoke on the petitions posted at various points in the valley for the signatures of the property owners in regard to procuring the services of the school nurse, sanitary inspector and school doctor for the valley, salary for these officers to come from funds in the county treasury. At present the school nurse is receiving her salary from the county and the different school districts she serves. Dr. Wemple is interested in this movement, he said, to get the proper sanitation in the valley and is not a candidate for any office which may be open by the signing of such petitions. George Wales Farrand, secretary of the Verdugo spoke on the work the associaspoke on the work of the association is doing in forming a free employment bureau in the valley where every one is requested to list their wants in the way of workers or work. Dr. Wemple invited all to be present at the dinner to be held at the Oakmont Country club in regard to widening Michigan boulevard and other roads in the valley. Adjournment being in order the members next meeting will be held the first week in November.

Plans which had been made for the American Legion Verdugo Hills post to give a vaudeville show in November at the Montrose playhouse have been postponed to sometime in January.

During the super-hot days in London this summer, the happiest people were the natives of India, who paraded the streets hatless and in silk robes.

Eyes Bring Proposals

MLLE. SARAH RAFALI of Paris has received more offers of marriage than any other young woman in the French capital, and it is claimed her fatal charm is attributed to her eyes.

FROM EAGLE ROCK

EAGLE ROCK, Nov. 7.—The newly-elected Chamber of Commerce directors met Wednesday night for the first time with their new president, C. W. Young.

The Young Matrons' club held a luncheon Wednesday noon at the home of Mrs. L. E. Dixon on Royal drive.

The delegation from Eagle Rock that sat in with the Los Angeles playground commission on the recent local playground discussion returned home with the report that while no decision has been reached, nevertheless they are inclined to believe a favorable decision will ultimately be reached.

The Rockdale Parent-Teachers' association wishes to call attention to Education Week, November 17 to 24. Parents are urged to make a special effort to visit the schools during this period.

Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of the Los Angeles schools, will speak at the November meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association at the Eagle Rock school. She has announced her subject of address as "Responsibility of the School In the Training of the Child." The date set for the meeting is November 12 and all are invited.

Nell Stegner presented her pupils last night in a recital at 2144 Colorado boulevard. Mme. Margaret Weidler sang.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Sickle of Ridge View avenue have returned from a two-weeks' trip up north. They went by auto, stopping at San Francisco, Santa Barbara and other points.

A large company of Lincoln, Neb., friends recently gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Brinegar on Hermosa avenue, honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Van Pettan, of Lincoln, who were spending their vacation in California. Out of a company of thirty, only two families have been in California for more than a year.

The Misses Emilia, Martha and Rafaelita Palomares, three sisters, are occupying their new home at 2415 Ridge View avenue.

BURBANK NEWS

BURBANK, Nov. 7.—The nominating committee has made its report to the Chamber of Commerce, submitting the following twelve names as candidates for the November 27 election to the directorship of that body: W. G. Schmelzel, B. A. Cross, Val Bonney, May Clarke, C. H. Branaman, Clay Beckner, H. R. Ling, A. J. Rose, Ray Sence, D. B. Cummings, W. S. Walker and Grove Ketchum.

The new directors will take office December 5. On that date, it is expected now, a banquet will be held by the chamber, when the newly elected board members will be received as such. This will follow the regular directors' meeting that day, when the new members will be officially installed.

The Business and Professional Women's club held a dinner meeting last night at the Santa Rosa cafe. Following the meal, a program was given. Mrs. Dwyer, who had been engaged to speak, was not present.

A benefit lecture on "Art" will be given at the Thomas A. Edison school the night of November 14, by the members of the Women's club, with Edward Langley as principal speaker. Mr. Langley is vice-president of the International Artists' club.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Larkins of Bakersfield visited recently at the home of their cousin, Mrs. Harriet Greenman of Angeleno avenue. While here Mr. Larkins purchased a business lot on San Fernando boulevard as an investment.

Mrs. E. A. Doan of 619 Angeleno avenue returned home Sunday from a two-weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Whitcomb of Long Beach. The Whitcomb family accompanied her here and spent the day at the home of G. P. Doan at 619 Angeleno avenue.

TUJUNGA NOTES

TUJUNGA, Nov. 7.—Complete election returns, delayed by an avalanche of ballots that worked the clerks as never before in Tujunga, give Coolidge and the Republican party an overwhelming majority. In the three Tujunga precincts and one Sunland, Democrats cast a lighter vote than the Socialists. Lineberger received a heavy vote compared with Randall. Weller received a substantial majority over Tow. County road bonds received a strong, favorable vote, but the water and power proposition was decisively defeated. The story of Tujunga's results is a repetition of practically all other precincts. A total of 811 ballots were cast out of a possible 1175.

As a result of the meeting held here this week of the Verdugo Hills Merchants' association a free employment bureau is to be established in connection with the association. The bureau will function for the entire Verdugo Hills district and will be in charge of George Wales Farrand, secretary of the association. The bureau will be located in the office of the secretary at Michigan and Los Angeles avenues, La Crescenta. Employers and employes may register their wants there. The Tujunga Radio shop, William G. Hartranft, proprietor, joined the association at the last meeting. A proposal by Dr. E. L. Wemple of La Crescenta that the county board of supervisors appoint a sanitary inspector, officer and school nurse for the valley was endorsed. The next meeting was announced for Tuesday, November 11, at Hillside Terrace, Michigan and Los Angeles avenues, La Crescenta.

A community sing will be held Friday, tonight, at the school auditorium. The Parent-Teacher association will have charge.

The Tujunga Woman's club announces that a committee will supply Thanksgiving pies and cakes on order. Orders may be given to Mrs. White, Sunland 402; Mrs. Kindler, Sunland 804, or Mrs. Dean, Sunland 724.

Rehearsal will be held tonight by the Community Church Choral society, 7:30 o'clock, at the church on El Centro street at San Ysidro. The society is preparing to give a popular music concert November 21.

Bank Clearings South Reflect Good Trading

ATLANTA, Nov. 7.—Bank clearings in this city in the last month reflect a tremendous impetus given retail and wholesale trade and manufacture by the largest and most profitable crop grown in the southeast in the last four years. Ginnings in Georgia alone have passed the 700,000 bale mark, or 100,000 more than the 1923 total. State Agricultural Commissioner Brown is negotiating for the establishment of a large calcium arsenate plant on the Georgia seaboard. Consumption of the boll weevil poison increased 300 per cent in 1924. Holiday goods are being bought freely by retailers. The cane grinding season is now on in full blast. The crop was hindered by a long drought.

Midwest Banks Report Big Loans to Farmers

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Joint land banks and federal land banks in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin report a continued increase in loans to farmers. Iowa farmers received the larger amounts.

K. C. LODGES UNITE IN MEETING

Members from San Fernando And Glendale Put on Degree Work Here

San Fernando Knights of Columbus joined with Glendale Knights last night for a meeting and exemplification of the first degree by the Glendale degree team at the clubhouse, 330 East Lomita avenue. Fred H. Huesman, grand knight of Glendale council, presided. A class of forty was initiated for both councils.

Those becoming members of Glendale council were W. J. Glover, John E. Deer, B. Small, Fred Cheesman, James O'Donnell, John E. Whittle, O. J. Argus, Herbert Argus, J. V. O'Brien, M. J. O'Brien, Joseph Gannon, J. R. May, Al Monio, C. A. Clark, Ernest Roth, Merle G. Budd.

In Parade Sunday

The Glendale council is to be represented Sunday afternoon in the Holy Name's parade in Los Angeles. Those taking part will meet at the clubhouse at 1 o'clock and motor to Los Angeles.

Other announcements were that there will be a dance Saturday night and that Glendale council will be represented in the Armistice day celebration. Michael Gannon was named treasurer to succeed H. A. Mailloux, resigned.

It was with regret that the Knights learned that Francis R. Wallace, manager of the clubhouse, will leave shortly for San Francisco. Mr. Wallace has served the council efficiently and will be missed by his many Glendale friends. Joseph Wagner, assisted by Joseph Folz and Peter J. Mulcahey, was in charge of refreshments last night.

Once Famous Screen Vamp Startles With Wig for Each Gown

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 7.—Louise Glaum in returning to the screen offers a bizarre innovation which, if followed by the fashionable, will drive more than one society matron to nervous breakdown.

A wig to match every gown she owns, is the boast of the once famous vampire of the films who will vamp no more. Spun glass wigs to match her evening gowns, woven gold hairdress for dinner gowns and natural tresses for informal and outdoor usage, is her schedule.

"With the advent of appropriate wigs feminine headgear is in danger of becoming obsolete," Miss Glaum has decided.

WOMAN MOTORIST IS HURT IN CRASH

Eagle Rock Resident Suffers Face Bruises When Car Hits Building

Mrs. R. T. McLean of 5163 Windermere avenue, Eagle Rock, sustained cuts about the face and severe bruises, today, when a car which she was driving became unmanageable and crashed into an apartment house at the northeast corner of Glendale avenue and Windsor road.

Lieutenant W. J. Royle of Glendale police answered a hurry call and took the woman to the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. V. Freeman, 712 East Windsor road, where she was placed under the care of a physician.

The car driven by Mrs. McLean was badly damaged, the steering wheel broken and bumper and front wheels twisted. Stucco was stripped from the building.

CITY HOLDS PURE MILK RECORD

Dr. Kaemmerling, Municipal Health Officer, Tells Of Dairy Tests

Glendale has the best record for pure milk of any city in the state, declared Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, city health officer, yesterday afternoon in a talk before the Calorado Parent-Teacher association. He made this statement following a discussion of the work of the city in testing the milk supply and telling of the great improvement in the grade of milk being consumed in Glendale homes.

He asked for the co-operation of Glendale mothers, urging them to buy milk of dairies with high ratings.

Dr. Kaemmerling's talk was of great value to the company of over fifty women. They were most interested in his discussion of the underweight child, and his emphasis on the proper feeding of children. He also asked for co-operation with the city board of health.

Playground Equipment

During the meeting motion pictures were shown of playground equipment. Children were seen using the apparatus and a comprehensive idea was gained by the mothers of the best kinds of playground equipment. Following the picture the P.-T. A. voted to purchase a safety platform slide for the Colorado school ground.

Another feature of the meeting was a demonstration of beginning reading in the first grade, given by the principal, Miss Ida M. Waite, assisted by six pupils. This is the first of a series of demonstrations, planned for the association meeting to give mothers information of every day work in the class rooms. Another speaker was Miss English of the home economics department of the Harvard High school, who gave a talk on children's lunches.

Mrs. Frank W. Parr, president, was in charge of the meeting. It was decided to hold a "Fathers' Night," Friday, November 14, and to participate in the Armistice day parade.

Plays Lead

WILLIAM HARVEY STEPHENS, who is impressing theatre-goers by his work in "Turn to the Right" this week with the Dobinson Players.

"Turn to the Right," which the Dobinson Players are presenting with such success at the Club Playhouse, will have its final performances this week. Its unusual twists and turns, its pathos and humor add to its attraction as one of the best comedies ever written. The company producing it is being commended by critics for their excellent work.

With the Dobinson Players, each player is chosen for the role best fitted, and in this way production is presented with a finish that has delighted the audiences. In "Turn to the Right," Georgie Woodthorpe and William H. Stephens are doing as fine work as can be seen and the supporting cast, composed of Mary Isabelle Alpaugh, Marie Grey, Thyra Ruhland, Joseph McManus, William Chapman, Carroll Nye, Arthur Lovejoy, George C. Pearce and Harry J. Glazier are equally good.

BELIEVE MAN MURDERED ON ROAD

Bride Reports He Started From Nevada Saturday With $100,000

The sheriff's office in Los Angeles and police in cities all the way from Reno, Nev., to Glendale, joined today in a search for Charles Winnegle, forty years old and wealthy, who is believed to have left Reno for Glendale in an automobile over a week ago with upwards of $100,000 in currency.

No word from Winnegle has since been received by his wife who awaits him here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Foster, Manhattan place, Verdugo City. Belief that the man has either met foul play or has been killed in an accident in the high mountains where snow storms have been raging, was expressed by sheriff's deputies.

Recently Married

According to the reports made to Deputy Sheriff Catlin the Winnegles were recently married at Detroit, Mich. They motored to Southern California on their honeymoon. Combining business with pleasure they went back to Reno, where Winnegle left his bride and went farther into Nevada to dispose of large mining land and holdings which he had.

His wife returned to Glendale and, according to her story, her husband was to follow after completing the sale of his land and bring the proceeds of the transaction. He was to make the trip by automobile and expected to arrive here last Saturday. Mrs. Winnegle made all arrangements for their return to Detroit, even having made reservations with a

Bursting Shells, Gas Tank Blast, Car Afire All In Hunter's Day

POMONA, Nov. 7.—Harry Krouse went a-hunting. Near Elsinore his machine upset and slightly injured Carl Sanborn of this city. Two companions brought him home, while Krouse followed later with his machine. While passing through West Riverside at midnight, Krouse was forced to flee from his car, which had caught fire. Exploding shotgun shells carried in the back of the car prevented other motorists from aiding in extinguishing the blaze, and as a grand finale, the gasoline tank exploded.

MUSIC LEADERS WILL MEET HERE

Plans for Eisteddfod to Be Made November 15 at Local Clubhouse

There will be a meeting of Southern California leaders in music, art and drama, Saturday afternoon and night, November 15, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, to complete plans for the all-Southern California eisteddfod, the contests in music, art and drama.

In the afternoon the meeting will begin at 3 o'clock. A dinner will follow at 6 o'clock with Mrs. Charles H. Toll as toastmistress. Mrs. Alexander Mitchell is chairman of the program committee. John Steven McGroarty will be among the special guests.

Completely furnished and with a gable roof, a house seven feet long, ten feet high and having a frontage of five feet is occupied by Evan Phillips of Wales.

GOOD ROADS DINNER IS PLANNED

Proposed Widening Of Road To Sunland; Discussion At Oakmont Meet

Plans to insure widening Michigan avenue from Flintridge to Sunland and construction of a bridge at the east end of the highway across Arroyo Seco to connect with Foothill boulevard in Altadena, will be discussed at a "good roads banquet" at the Oakmont Country club tonight.

All members of the state highway commission, headed by Senator Arthur H. Breed, chairman and Honorable W. F. Mixon, secretary, will attend. Los Angeles county supervisors, heads of all county departments, Mayor Spencer Robinson and city councilmen of Glendale, and all heads of civic organizations here, also will be in attendance.

Verdugo City Auspices

The banquet will be under the auspices of the Verdugo City association of Commerce with Harry N. Fowler, president of the association chairman of committee on arrangements. Officials of the Tujunga, Sunland, La Crescenta and Montrose chambers of commerce will co-operate. Former Senator Frank P. Flint will be toastmaster.

Proposed plan of the highway commission that the state take over and perfect a north and south highway running from the foothills near La Canada through Glendale to the sea, will be discussed.

Will H. Marsh to Talk

Will H. Marsh, chief of the division of motor vehicles, of Sacramento, will, it is announced by M. B. Towman, local manager of the Automobile Club of Southern

THE LEAGUE AND PEACE

It takes more than arbitration to bring about peace. Ten years ago there were 200 treaties of arbitration in the world, and yet the nations became embroiled in war. No international body or court can function in any spirit but that of its members.

Many see in the League of Nations' acceptance of the protocol inviting all the world powers to a disarmament conference in Europe next June the beginning of an effective movement for world peace, while others feel that the amendment which empowers the League to take into consideration any dispute between nations on purely domestic questions is only a source of further trouble.

Don Marquis, journalist, philosopher and columnist, writes, "A League of Nations can only be a mechanism, responsive to good forces and evil forces. It is incapable of giving out anything that is not put into it; it can be an implement for fine ideals, but cannot create them; it can as readily become the implement of a gloomy tyranny. Idealists baffled by the Herculean (but necessary) task of improving human nature have turned to it hopefully. In the long run it doesn't make the slightest difference whether it continues to exist or vanishes, or whether the United States joins it or not. Dominant powers will dominate, whether with it or without it. A new spirit will (we hope and sometimes believe) come into the world, after many weary centuries of strife, either with it or without it, but not because of it nor in spite of it."

"League politics never will be free from attempts of member states to use international processes for national advantage, for encroachment and aggression," says the Kansas City Times. And this newspaper goes on to say that if Japan or any other country could, through mandate of the League, set aside an act of Congress and make any subject of American domestic legislation one of international concern, then the United States would have ceased to be a sovereign state. The country that yields that right to any outside power yields its nationality.

EAST AND WEST

In certain sections of India it is said that every householder keeps a peacock to frighten away the rattlesnakes which are so prevalent. But peafowls are prone to wander away, so they are given a portion of opium each day. They soon get the habit and return home at regular intervals for their "dope." In this country the rattlesnakes would be killed and the peafowls dispensed with, which explains, in a way, the difference between the east and the west. As Kipling says:

"O, East is East and West is West, and never the two shall meet, Till Earth and Sky stand presently at God's great judgment seat."

Eastern customs and culture are so different from ours that we sometimes make them a matter for criticism and ridicule. The Indians may go around Robin Hood's barn in some of their practices, but in their manner of dealing with the automobile they may teach us progressive and practical westerners a thing or two. Of course the use of the automobile is only in its infancy in India, and the motor car is a luxury there, although there are 55,000 passenger cars in use in that country. But the Hindu motorist drives with restraint and care. In fact, great trouble would result for him if wayfarers on the highways, where they have a right to be, were killed, as too often happens in this country. It is reasonable to expect a great increase in the use of the automobile in India, and it is good to believe that this will be accompanied by no abuses, and that the ancient rights of the people on the highway will be preserved.

Perhaps India will avoid the evils attendant upon the use of the motor car, and enjoy to the full its pleasures and advantages.

EXTRAVAGANCE AND DEBT

A correspondent makes a plea to a national journal to impress upon its readers that it is their own extravagance and not the fault of the government that keeps them in debt. There is a good deal to be said on this side of the question. Taxes are high, much too high, and yet there is a tendency on the part of people of all classes to spend altogether too great a per cent of their incomes upon non-essentials.

Life isn't worth-while unless one has a little time for recreation and an opportunity to enjoy the better things of life. But there is a point beyond which we should not go in spending money for things we do not need. Every family should determine what part of the income should be laid aside for future needs or for investment, what part should be used for living expenses, and what part for non-essentials. And then this budget should be rigidly adhered to. Many people might cut in half the allowances they give their children with great profit to the children and saving for themselves.

There may be extravagance in our government, as is so often charged, but it is no greater than the personal extravagance of the people who make up the country. Niggardliness is not to be encouraged, but there is a happy medium between parsimony and extravagance for which we should earnestly strive

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Aldous Huxley, English writer, says that men of genius alone deserve to be called real men. In the history of the race there have been only a few thousand real men. The rest of us are teachable animals. Without the help of the real men we should have found out nothing at all. Almost all the ideas with which we are familiar would never have occurred to us. Plant the seed in our minds and it will grow, but our minds could never have generated them.

This satirist is no great admirer of the human race, it is evident, but it is the truth that hurts, and we have to admit the underlying truth of his charge. We are so much like sheep, so willing to follow a leader instead of striking out in an individual course. We accept the things the great minds map out for us in art, literature, science, invention and even in our manner of living and dressing.

We often hear it said of some custom or invention that seems good, "Why couldn't I have thought of that?" Because we are too content to let some one else lead. We lack the ambition and the courage to strike out alone, and people look at us askance if we are a little "different."

However, as Lincoln said, "God must love the common people, for he made so many of them," and the common people are those who are content to follow and to learn from others.

EQUIPMENT DOESN'T ALWAYS GET THE DUCKS

Holes in the Bread

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Mr. I. K. Russell, member of the American Chemical society, has written a book entitled, "The Romance of the Holes in the Bread."

He says that all our lives we have been accustomed, three times a day since we began to toddle, to see holes in the bread, and perhaps some of us have wondered what caused them. If we had known we might have been on a level with the greatest scientist in the world.

This scientist was named Louis Pasteur, who was called the father of modern medicine.

He was declared, in a voting contest in France, to be the greatest Frenchman who ever lived. Most of us would have voted for Napoleon.

Louis Pasteur noted that when heat was applied to dough and it passed above a certain point it broke up and changed in the nautre and function of its particles.

He applied the function of the bake oven to other things in life.

There was cholera, which had swept over the cities of the middle ages every winter, taking thousands of victims. There was smallpox, which was almost universally prevalent, and typhoid fever, which swept in great epidemics the face of the country.

Besides these, there were certain fevers which, in maternity hospitals, carried off eighty women out of every hundred admitted.

Pasteur, when only a young man, asked that the doctors lend him their bandages and instruments so that he might bake them or pass them through a flame to kill any germ particles on them. The doctors let him take the bandages and the sheets used by the nurses and the death rate dropped to twenty out of a hundred.

He demonstrated that the dough of bread contained yeast which ate away its starches and sugar and gave off carbon dioxide and alcohol.

From this he extended his studies to prevent wine from turning to vinegar and to preserve some thirty to forty per cent of the beer which the brewers had been in the habit of throwing away as rotten, to cure the plague that had been ravaging among the silk worms, to prevent cholera among chickens and anthrax among herds of beasts.

Pasteur tied all these instances of human, animate and inanimate experiences together and applied ot them, one after another, his great discovery and thus protected humanity and the animals, in a measure, from their enemies among microscopic life.

Horoscope

Astrologers read this as a very doubtful day. The Sun is in nukdkt adverse aspect and the planetary influences are not especially strong in guiding human activities.

From early in the morning the direction of the stars tends to encourage routine work and to discourage anything like enterprise.

All the signs appear to indicate a relaxing of the usually tense effort that men put into business and it is probably that the next few days will be marked by watchful waiting on the part of most commercial leaders.

It is not an auspicious time to seek any sort of employment and all who belong to the artistic professions should be especially careful not to put fate to the test.

Neptune is in a place held to presage reforms and improvements in methods of conducting public institutions.

Orphan asylums and places where youthful offenders are dealt with will come in for special attention.

Uranus continues in an aspect supposed to forecast the sudden presentation of foreign problems and even the precipitation of crises that are unexpected.

Education comes under a planetary direction held to encourage stress on the practical side of training.

All the signs appear to foreshadow great strides in all lines of technical attainment and great improvement in many lines of work.

The oil industry should benefit from aspects that are read as forecasting improvement in methods of production and distribution.

Many new inventions will mark the close of this year and the beginning of 1925, it is foretold.

Women may expect honors and recognition. After a period in which they are more or less ignored politically when rewards are to be considered they will benefit exceedingly.

Persons whose birth date it is have the augury of a quiet year, but financial affairs should be satisfactory.

Children born on this day may meet many financial vicissitudes, but these subjects of Scorpio should be successful in the end.

Today's Poem

LIFE AND DEATH

So he died for his faith. That is fine—
More than most of us do.
But stay, can you add to that line
That he lived for it, too?

In death he bore witness at last
As a martyr to truth.
Did his life do the same in the past
From the days of his youth?

It is easy to die. Men have died
For a wish or a whim—
From bravado or passion or pride,
Was it harder for him?

But to live! every day to live out
All the truth that he dreamt,
While his friends met his conduct with doubt,
And the world with contempt—

Was it thus that he plodded ahead,
Never turning aside?
Then we'll talk of the life that he led,
Never mind how he died.

—Ernest Crosby.

The program at the formal opening of the new library tomorrow will be: music by high school orchestra; "The City and Library," O. A. Lane, president of the board of city trustees; "Early History," Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club; "The Growth of the Library," Mrs. R. A. Blackburn; talk by Mrs. Mary H. Gridley-Braly; poem written for the occasion by Samuel Parker.

Dr. Robert G. Burdette lies dying at his Pasadena home.

F. M. Shumate and wife, formerly of Danville, Kentucky, have purchased the beautiful $4000 bungalow at 1424 West First street and will reside there.

Thirty million pounds of yarn, valued at $27,000,000, were brought into this country last year.

Girls probably will be great favorites.

Comment From Exchanges

WHAT OF OUR FUTURE?
(From Hollywood Citizen)

The fact that the examination of our citizens drafted for service in the World war, disclosed that 25 per cent of them—one in four—could not read or write, is one that startled all good citizens. The majority of the illiteracy was found in the south and around New York City, from which territory comes most of the money which supports the underground campaign against a child labor amendment to the constitution. That child labor, and not our school system, is responsible for this condition is unquestioned. The child labor amendment to the constitution is designed to take a million children out of factory, mine and quarry, and put them in school. And, too, the fact that this illiteracy was largely found in the southern states, where the population is nearly pure American, is not a source of gratification to those of us who prate about Nordic supremacy.

As long as selfish interest thus preys upon the labor of children who ought to be in school, and fattens upon the profits of their labor, so long will the list of illiterates grow and loom more and more as a menace to this republic. The public school is believed to be the cornerstone upon which our republic is building. But if selfish interests of manufacturers are allowed to control our governments and courts and to prey upon misfortune and ignorance, what of our future?

DRIVERS' VISION
(From Hollywood Citizen)

The relation of normal eyesight to safe driving ought to be obvious. That its importance is too often ignored is indicated by the fact that only nine states out of the forty-eight have any eyesight requirements for applicants for drivers' licenses.

At present, however, there seems to be a general awakening toward this need. Safety councils and traffic authorities are gathering statistics of the number of accidents traceable to poor vision.

In Roanoke, Va., the police department is conducting specific tests along this line. Since January 1, 1924, it has ruled that every applicant for a driver's license must have at least one-half normal vision in order to receive a permit to drive. All whose vision is below that are advised to have the eyes examined and to secure glasses. If the vision cannot be brought to one-half normal by any means, the permit is permanently refused.

"Ont of 4496 applicants," according to a report of the Eyesight Conservation Council of America, "124 were refused permits until their distance vision was improved by glasses, three were refused permits unconditionally because their vision could not be brought up to even a half of normal."

It is strange that such a point as this has been neglected so long, but no community should hesitate hereafter to insist that drivers be able to see well.

Smiles

RECENT VISITOR

Weather is usually a safe topic of conversation, but ltlle Doris proved that accidents can happen.

Some neighbors came in, and the conversation drifted from one channel to another until some one referred to the next door neighbor, saying:

"How does dear old Mr. Jones stand the terrible heat?"

It was at this moment that Doris edged into the conversation:

"Oh, we don't know yet. He's only been dead a week."

DUSTING OFF OLD ONES

An Irishman and a Frenchman got into an argument about the total number of beverages, alcoholic and otherwise, in existence. Pat claimed there were eighty-three. The Frenchman insisted there were only eighty-two. They made a bet.

"I'll name the eighty-three," said Pat. "First, there is water——"

"Ah, you win," the Frenchman interrupted. "I had forgotten all about that one."

NO REASON

First Lawyer: "While you were out to lunch, Harry, we were retained to defend a woman slayer."

The Partner: "Was she beautiful?"

"No—she wasn't even young."

"Then why on earth did she want to up and kill a man?"

MOCO AUTO FINISH HIGH PERFECTION

Gene Morriss, One-Day Paint System, Praises Covering That Defies Rain

"The same spirit of progressiveness that perfected the one-day auto painting system and made folk marvel at our fine durable finish, our speed and especially the low cost, has again moved ahead of the times and perfected Moco, the platinum finish for autos," said C. H. Arbenz, proprietor of the Gene Morriss one-day auto painting system shop, 747 South San Fernando road.

Mr. Arbenz says his shop is the only one in Glendale that applies Moco which, he says, defies rain and sun and leaves a beautiful, everlasting finish. He said over 28,000 cars have already been finished by the Gene Morriss system and the list of satisfied customers is growing larger every day.

Nearly 30,000 automobiles made in France in seven months this year were shipped to other countries.

Slight Damage Done as Bakery Oven Back Fires

Fire in the bakery at 113 West Broadway, early this morning, was extinguished by a crew from station 1 of the Glendale fire department, under Captain Ralph Dodsworth, before it had done appreciable damage. The loss, confined to fixtures and walls, will not exceed $75, according to Captain Dodsworth's report filed with Chief A. H. Lankford. Charles F. Hahn is the owner of the building. The fire is believed to have started from a burning newspaper which had been lighted for the purpose of igniting an oven.

Verdugo Knoll Houses Are of English Type

A wee bit of "merrie old England" may be seen right near Glendale, along Verdugo road, in the group of homes known as Verdugo Knoll. It is all the creation of T. B. Nichols, builder and designer. He has been instrumental in building seventeen residences on the Knoll and has two more under consideration. He has adopted the English style of architecture, affording a pleasing variety in the general scheme of residence construction.

ECHO FROM CIVIC CENTER DECISION

C. B. Woodberry Praises The News; Makes Protest Over Tax Burdens

Editor The Evening News—Having maintained a commendable silence during the recent uncivil storm center, may I break into the columns of your widely-read purveyor of daily happenings to express appreciation of and for the current editorial, "Civic Center Not Popular?" It should be preserved by citizens for future reference when occasion requires.

Also, here is a second to the worthwhile sentiments very plainly and effectively set forth in the article from the pen of Mr. Guthrie. Be it understood that so long as two sections of our ambitious little village enact the role of little Johnny, aged 4, and his brother, Willie, aged 8, so long will there be wars and rumors of war within our civic household. The play is very short and to the point: the two lads at play, an outcery, mother appears: "Willie, what is the matter with Johnny?" Says Willie: "He's so silly, he cries every time I hit him."

Ancient History

The great majority of Glendale people know little and probably care less about our ancient history, but to such as were here during the stormy period of 1906 and subsequent years, comes sometimes a vivid recollection of their street railroad being, beg pardon, purloined from the "eastside" during the long hours of a certain Saturday night; of the statement by a man of great financial ability that he would make an alley of Glendale avenue, etcetera, etcetera.

Does anyone expect to sow thistles and not feel them prick in the harvesting? Do not reopen the "old sores of sectionalism." Let them heal and pass into oblivion, for we should be wise enough by now to realize that it is not necessary to tear down any part of Glendale in order to build up another part; as the "Comment" man says: that's that.

Says Mr. Guthrie: "Juggling of rates and assessments does not alleviate the pain. "Juggling" is the right word, unless a stronger be substituted. Were it not so serious a matter it would be amusing to watch the deluded taxpayer as he "blows" about his wonderful low tax rate and later "blows" about his swollen taxes.

Children's Welfare

We profess a wonderful interest in the welfare and future of our children and then proceed to load upon their defenseless shoulders for the full life of their generation an ever-increasing load of debts and interests to be paid by them. They may later on think of us as among those referred to in the Good Book when it says: "The sins of the fathers shall be visited upon the children," etc.

The president of this great country is committed to an avowed policy of common sense, economy — neither extravagance nor parsimony; the governor of the commonwealth of California is committed to the same policy, but a minority of our citizens, thoroughly organized, is headed the other way and usually they succeed in both leading the horse to water and making him drink. Yes, whether a success or not, Mr. Guthrie's plan or some other should be tried so that it may not be remembered against us that we were "like dumb, driven cattle" in the bivouac of life.

CREAM CLEARS A STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Clears Throat, Too

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.—Advertisement.

RUB CHEST COLDS AWAY: STOP PAINS

Pain and congestion are gone. Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from chest colds, sore throat, backache, lumbago follows a gentle rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil.

Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your chest and, like magic, relief comes. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless liniment which quickly breaks chest colds, soothes the inflammation of sore throat and breaks up the congestion that causes pain. It never disappoints and does not burn the skin.

Get a 35 cent bottle of St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store. It has been recommended for 65 years. —Advertisement.

Council Minutes

Minutes of the Glendale City Council, prepared by city clerk

The minutes of the City Council of Glendale, for November 6, 1924. Council assembled at 10 a. m. All members present. Minutes of November 5 read and approved.

In accordance with call, bids were publicly opened, examined and declared for the improvement of portions of Watson street, Alameda avenue, Mountain street, from the following bidders: Hugh Cornwell, John W. Henderson and C. L. Hill. Moved by Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Davis, duly carried, that bids be referred to city engineer for checking and report.

Issuance of Bonds

The clerk informed the council that this was the time, hour and place where all persons interested might appear and state their objections, if any, against any action of the council of the City of Glendale to determine the aggregate amount of unpaid assessments for the improvement of portions of Monterey road, Adams street and Glendale avenue in said city, and providing for the issuance of bonds therefor, and prescribing their denomination, as more particularly described in resolution of intention No. 2347, passed by the said council on April 3, 1924, and the clerk also reported to the council that he had not received any written protests or objections up to the time set for the hearing. Whereupon the mayor asked if there were any interested persons present who desired to be heard, and all interested persons having been given full opportunity to show cause why said bonds should not be issued in accordance with the determination of the council, and all objections having been heard and considered, on motion of Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, duly carried, all protests were denied. Whereupon Councilman Kimlin introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale, California, relating to the issuance of street improvement bonds pursuant to resolution of intention No. 2347, determining the amount of unpaid assessments, prescribing the denomination of such bonds, and providing for their issuance," which was read and, on his motion, seconded by Councilman Hall, the same was numbered resolution No. 2646 and adopted.

Commercial District

Clerk informed the council that this was the time set for hearing to set aside as commercial district the westerly fifty feet of the easterly 150 feet of lot 1, tract No. 3841. Clerk reported no protests received and Planning commission reported favorably. Moved by Councilman Hall, that city attorney be instructed to draft the necessary amendment. Vote as follows: Ayes, Gilhuly, Hall, Kimlin, Robinson; noes, Davis; absent, none.

Canvass Votes

Clerk informed the council that this was the time for the canvass of votes of special election, held Tuesday, November 4, 1924. The mayor appointed Councilmen Hall, Gilhuly and Kimlin as tellers. Whereupon tellers proceeded to canvass the returns of the special election.

Improve Bruce Avenue

Petition signed by property owners, asking that Bruce avenue between Glenwood road and Eighth street be improved with three-inch oil macadam, together with a check for $1262 as an agreement of the property owners to pay a portion thereof, was read. Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Hall, that petition be referred to city engineer for checking and report.

Improve Eden Avenue

Petition signed by property owners, asking that proceedings be started to improve Eden avenue, Mount Carmel drive and a portion of Walnut drive, was read. Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Counilman Hall, that petition be referred to city engineer for checking and report.

Petition signed by property owners, asking that lots 1 to 29, inclusive, and lots 68 to 96, inclusive, in tract No. 5948, be set aside as commercial district, was read. Moved by Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Hall, duly carried, that city clerk be instructed to set the necessary date of hearing before the Planning commission November 17 and before the council on November 20.

Extension of Time

Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, that city of Glendale be granted an extension of ninety days on the contract for the improvement of Adams street, Colorado boulevard to Palmer avenue, with water mains.

Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, that invitation to attend opening exercises of new Harrower Foundation Clinic building be accepted.

Alley Deed

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Hall, that city attorney be instructed to draft a resolution accepting a deed for alley purposes located at Lincoln avenue and Colorado boulevard. Vote as follows: Ayes, Davis, Gilhuly, Hall, Kimlin; noes, Robinson; absent, none.

Meter Installation

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, that request of D. J. Hibben to leave meter as now installed in house on East Laurel avenue, be granted. Vote as follows: Ayes, Davis, Gilhuly, Kimlin; noes, Robinson; absent, none; not voting, Hall.

Fire Hazard

Moved by Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, that city manager be instructed to take necessary steps to provide protection against fire in city engineer's office.

Moved by Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Kimlin, that controller be instructed to draw warrant in favor of the Glendale Welfare Bureau in the sum of $100.

Ordinances Adopted

Moved by Councilman Kimlin, seconded by Councilman Hall, that that certain ordinance entitled, "An ordinance of the city of Glendale establishing school crosswalks at certain intersections of streets in the city of Glendale, directing the chief of police of said city to indicate said crossings by certain lines and arrows painted upon the highways, regulating all traffic thereover, and prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof," introduced on October 30, 1924, be amended to read as it now stands in the hands of the city clerk. Vote as follows: Ayes, Davis, Hall, Kimlin, Robinson; noes, Gilhuly; absent, none.

The ordinance entitled, "An ordinance of the city of Glendale establishing school crosswalks at certain intersections of streets in the city of Glendale, directing the chief of police of said city to indicate said crossings by certain lines and arrows painted upon the highways, regulating all traffic thereover, and prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof," which was introduced October 30, 1924, was read and, on motion of Councilman Davis, seconded by Councilman Hall, said ordinance, as amended, was adopted and numbered ordinance No. 1005 by the following vote: Ayes, Davis, Hall, Kimlin, Robinson; noes, Gilhuly; absent, none.

The ordinance entitled, "An ordinance dedicating for public street purposes certain real property owned by the city of Glendale, accepting the same for the use of the public, and naming the same Irving avenue," which was introduced October 30, 1924, was read and, on motion of Councilman Gilhuly, seconded by Councilman Hall, said ordinance was adopted and numbered ordinance No. 1006.

Ordinance Offered

Councilman Hall introduced an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance amending ordinance No. 529, passed January 12, 1922, and entitled, 'An ordinance of the city of Glendale establishing a residential district, an industrial district and four commercial districts in said city; regulating and restricting the location and locations of and maintenance and carrying on of industries, trades and businesses in said city; providing for a "residential, industrial and commercial district map" of said city; prescribing the penalty for the violation hereof; and repealing certain ordinances,' by adding thereto a new section to be numbered section 4aa19," which was read and laid on the table.

Councilman Kimlin introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale ordering the alteration of the copy of the order determining unpaid assessments, filed with the county auditor to conform with the original of said order, and authorizing the county auditor to make the change," which was read and, on his motion, seconded by Councilman Hall, the same was numbered resolution No. 2647 and adopted.

Councilman Kimlin introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale extending the time for the completing of the assessment to pay the expenses of the proposed opening and widening of Fifth street as described in ordinance No. 722 of said city, adopted and approved on December 28, 1922," which was read and, on his motion, seconded by Councilman Hall, the same was numbered resolution No. 2648 and adopted.

Councilman Hall introduced a resolution entitled, "A resolution of the council of the city of Glendale adopting a certain diagram on file in the office of the city engineer of the city of Glendale," exhibiting Tyler street from Green street to Max street, which was read and, on his motion, seconded by Councilman Gilhuly, the same was numbered resolution No. 2649 and adopted.

Moved by Councilman Hall, seconded by Councilman Davis, duly carried, that meeting be adjourned.

Good Prices Expected For State Prune Crop

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7.—Unsold portion of the California prune crop will amount to about 55,000,000 pounds. Growers expect to secure good prices for this product.

Serving by Growing

EVERY time an installer signs for a telephone instrument at the stock room counter and starts out for the home or office of a new subscriber, where he is to connect it with the Bell System, he is serving you.

Each new telephone added to the system puts you in potential contact with the users of this new instrument. Every new installation, anywhere, increases the scope of your service; makes your telephone more valuable to you.

Since the invention of the telephone in 1876, many improvements in equipment and in operating methods have combined to increase the value of telephone service to the individual subscriber. Not only has it been made possible to hear clearly over the telephone, and at far greater distances, but also to be promptly connected with a larger number of subscribers—for the telephone serves by growing.

The number of Bell System telephones is growing at the rate of about three quarters of a million a year—a fact which at once illustrates the increasing value of telephone service to existing subscribers and its increasing acceptance by the public as indispensable to modern life.

CITIZENS EXPRESS THEIR APPROVAL OF BIG EDITION

Development Number of Glendale Evening News Praised; Many Send Extra Copies To Friends, Relatives Back East

Glendale has placed the stamp of approval on the 108-page issue of The Glendale Evening News on October 31, known as the Annual Development number. Merchants, city officials, realtors, clubwomen, business men, professional men and women, visitors and citizens in general have expressed their appreciation of the big edition.

So well pleased has all Glendale been with the Development number, the authentic and interesting stories of the city's growth, advancement and enterprise; the art work which tells more about public buildings, beautiful homes and industrial plants than volumes could, and the unequalled collection of photographs of prominent men and women of the city, that hundreds upon hundreds of copies have been mailed to persons living in the east, in the north, in the south, and along the Pacific coast.

All unite in expressing the belief that the Development number will advertise Glendale to the entire world and will result in many persons coming here to make their homes.

Mrs. Charles A. Burnham, of 205 West Maple street, sent a large bouquet of chrysanthemums to the office of The Glendale Evening News, to which was attached a card bearing congratulations for the Development number.

Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson announced that a copy of the Development number of The Glendale Evening News had been sent to First Assistant Postmaster General John H. Bartlett, and would be read by members of President Coolidge's cabinet.

Following are some of the expressions of approval:

MRS. MATTISON B. JONES, president of Glendale Music club—In behalf of the Glendale Music club, I wish to congratulate you upon your recent Development edition of The Glendale Evening News. I also wish to thank you for your generous publicity awarded to the Glendale Music club, not only in your special edition but in your daily editions. Our membership is very happy to know that the Glendale Music club, which is purely a Glendale institution, is recognized by The Evening News as being an important factor in the building of a greater musical Glendale. I wish The Evening News continued success.

MRS. A. H. MONTGOMERY, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club—I would add my compliments on your wonderful Development number and as president of the Tuesday Afternoon club express sincere appreciation for the splendid recognition given that organization. For Glendale people the edition is a complete journalistic resume of the accomplishments and successes of the past year; and for others, near and far, to whom copies are mailed, the paper will furnish ample proof that Glendale is indeed "The Fastest Growing City in America." May I congratulate you on our active interest in all things for the upbuilding and progress of our city, and on your efficient, earnest staff, which serves you so faithfully in the publication of your fine paper.

MRS. O. H. SPRADLING, president of Glendale Federation, Parent-Teacher association—The annual Development number of The Glendale Evening News was a fine publication, splendidly gotten up to give any one a comprehensive idea of our city. I was particularly pleased with the P.-T. A. story, which gave in a concise manner facts of interest about every unit of the organization.

MISS IDA D. MYERS, regent of General Richard Gridley chapter, Daughters of American Revolution—May I say the Development number was a wonderful paper. It covered admirably every phase of activity in Glendale and I am sending copies away to friends that they may read of our fast-growing city.

MRS. W. R. WICHERT, secretary of the Girl Scout council—I found the Development number of great interest. The Girl Scouts were justly proud of the fine story of their organization and activities.

C. C. COOPER, president of the Federal Commercial & Savings bank—The edition was splendid, one of the best I have ever seen anywhere. It is a credit to Glendale.

R. E. JOHNSTON, president of Exchange club and well known local manufacturer—We who are interested in industrial Glendale should be very thankful to the publisher of The Glendale Evening News for this splendid edition. It is a much needed supplement to the work we are trying to do as boosters of "the Fastest Growing City in America."

W. B. KELLY, president Lions club—Service clubs of Glendale in general, I believe, will be unanimous in praising the Development number of The Glendale Evening News. The display and splendid story given the organizations will prove of much benefit, I am sure, and I believe officials and members of all the clubs are grateful.

ALMA J. DANFORD, Glendale city librarian—It was a magnificent paper. Busy as I am, I have stolen time enough to scan its pages closely. We at the library are particularly grateful for the valuable story given our work. We have set aside a copy of the edition to be incorporated as a major part of our library history which has been compiled and maintained since the inception of the library here years ago.

P. L. HATCH, general manager Glendale-Montrose railroad—The special number was very fine. The history of the growth of transportation facilities and the present advantages of Glendale along this line were capably handled in the story appearing in the edition, and when read by those in the east, should exert an influence in their decision of whether or not to come to California and Glendale.

VIRGIL B. STONE, city manager—I am mighty well impressed with this number. It sets off the city to genuine advantage and is bound to create a favorable impression far and wide.

DR. HENRY R. HARROWER, founder of the Harrower laboratory—It's a whale of a number, the best ever!

A. J. VAN WIE, city clerk—A very commendable number. I am sending several copies to friends in various parts of the country.

D. H. WEBB, manager of the Glendale Hardware Co., and secretary of the Kiwanis club—The annual Development number of The News is a credit to Glendale. It is the best booster edition I have ever seen.

C. W. INGLEDUE, prominent realtor and president of the Glendale Advancement association and the Hotel Glendale, Inc.—It's a a peach. No small-town stuff here. An edition worthy of a city the size of Glendale.

A. H. LANKFORD, chief of the Glendale fire department—A thoroughly good, satisfying number. I can't see how anyone could ever get out a better edition about Glendale.

ED. N. RADKE, jeweler, president of the Advertising club of Glendale—A clean-cut edition, the best ever turned out by The Glendale Evening News. The cuts deserve special praise and the reading matter is excellent.

MRS. FRANK W. PARR, president of Glendale College Women's club—We were more than delighted with the Development number. It not only represented the things that are being done in Glendale, but shows the progress in the newspaper world and the type of paper Glendale people have before them daily.

MRS. JOHN ROBERT WHITE, JR., chairman of Glendale chapter, Red Cross—I am very proud of the Development number of The Glendale Evening News. It was very wonderful and showed not only the progress of the city but also the progress of The News as a fine newspaper.

MRS. HARRY GREENWALT, president of the Women's Parliamentary Law club—The Development number was very fine, giving all the interesting facts and pictures of Glendale, and representing a big expenditure. It was put in the hands of Glendale people at a most reasonable price. I was so proud of it that I sent copies back to my old home in Ohio.

MRS. E. W. W. HAYWARD, president of the P. E. O. reciprocity bureau—It was a fine edition, of which Glendale people can be justly proud

MRS. J. H. TOAL, president of the Women's Athletic club—The attainments and progress of Glendale are all found in the Development number. It was a fine edition. The Women's Athletic club is most grateful for all recognition received in The Glendale Evening News.

MRS. ROY BALLAGH, president of the Glendale Art association—It was a fine paper.

PETER HANSON, past president, Glendale Realty Board—The edition was a triumph of journalism for Glendale. It constitues a real boost for the city. It shows the scope and field of activity here most vividly.

HOWARD I. WOOD, secretary, Chamber of Commerce—The cuts were all new and clear, adding much to the beauty of the edition. As a former newspaper man, I noticed this in particular. It was the finest edition I ever saw produced in a city of the size of Glendale.

LYMAN P. CLARK, president Glendale Motor Dealers association—The Development edition was very satisfactory in every respect. It came up to every expectation.

DR. R. V. HOGUE, dentist—I have sent copies to all my friends in the east. If anything should induce them to come out here and share in the enjoyment of life in Glendale, the Development number of The News should. As a member of the Glendale Knights Templar, I feel I can thank the publisher for the splendid write-up given Masonic organizations.

NORMAN G. DAVIDSON editor, Glendale Masonic Bulletin—Even ye editor of the Masonic Bulletin will have to take his hat off to the Development number of The Glendale Evening News.

J. M. POWERS, passenger agent, Santa Fe railroad—The story on transportation facilities offered in Glendale was of especial appeal to me. The story on this "no small town subject" was handled in "no small town way." The edition will help boost Glendale and bring tourist travel here, I'm sure.

HARRY W. LUND, service station proprietor—This number of The News makes you glad to live in Glendale. I am proud of it and am sending copies to several friends.

T. H. MENK, realtor—A good number. Mr. Cowan and his staff deserve praise for their efforts.

COUNCILMAN S. A. DAVIS—The number is a credit to the city.

J. F. LILLY, secretary-treasurer, Valley Mortgage & Finance Co.—A fine issue and will be read widely.

JOHN D. FRASER chief of the Glendale police department—Gotten up in fine shape. A. T. Cowan deserves praise for a number like this.

COUNCILMAN S. S. GILHULY—One of the best papers ever issued in Glendale, and in the entire southwest for that matter.

H. C. VANDEWATER, building superintendent—A very exceptional number. It looks a million and is the best kind of advertising for the city.

MAYOR SPENCER ROBINSON—This is certainly a marvelous number and I have sent several copies away. It is the best issue The Evening News has ever produced.

DANIEL KELTY, JR., of Cornell & Kelty, hardware dealers—We have known The Glendale Evening News for many years but this is surely the best number in its history.

COUNCILMAN C. E. KIMLIN—A splendid Development number. It presents Glendale in a most comprehensive and broad-gauge fashion.

MRS. CHARLES A. PARKER, member of the music faculty, Glendale Union High school—I thought the Development number was splendid.

MRS. CARRIE CAMPBELL, president of the Thursday Afternoon club—I liked the Development number very much and was particularly pleased with the Thursday club story.

C. A. REDMOND city passenger agent, Union Pacific railroad—Let me particularly praise the editor for the attitude taken throughout the entire edition favoring the patronizing of home merchants, industries and the like. We of the railroad offices appreciate this espousing of the cause which is so near to our hearts and for which we have fought so hard.

RICHARDSON D. WHITE, city superintendent of schools—We will be able, with much satisfaction, to send the Development number of The Glendale Evening News to our friends in the east and elsewhere. It paints a vivid and comprehensive picture of Glendale. It really does it justice, and we can be proud to send it away.

MISS ANNIE L. McINTYRE, assistant city superintendent of schools—We are making good use of your splendid edition this week in our school work. We have had occasion to send literature to all organizations in the city and we find the list in the Development number most complete.

FRANK H. PILLING, secretary, Glendale Merchants association—In general the Development number was the finest ever. Everything about it was good and nothing was omitted.

WALTER W. JONES, secretary, Glendale Elks Lodge—We Elks can send the Development number of The News to our friends anywhere or to any other lodge in the country with pride. We appreciate the splendid outline of the work being done by the Elks here which the edition contains.

GEORGE U. MOYSE, principal Glendale Union High school—When I look back and remember the day when all Glendale turned out and a parade was held up and down Broadway in honor of the changing of The Glendale News from a weekly to a daily—that little daily of only four pages, and then take up the latest Development number, I again am reminded of the great forward strides Glendale has taken.

T. KURANAGA, proprietor of the Japan Art & Tea Co.—A remarkable achievement. Having operated a daily newspaper in San Francisco, I can appreciate the work and care required to bring out such an edition.

R. N. GREENLAW, Glendale Realty Co.—I am sending dozens of copies back east. The edition truly presents the city. There has never been anything like it in Glendale before.

JUDGE FRANK H. LOWE, of the Glendale police court—I was somewhat surprised and more than gratified to observe the scope and excellence of the Development number of The Evening News. The subject matter is comprehensive and the edition is typographically a genuine pleasure to anyone who has dealt intimately with newspapers for thirty years, as I have.

COUNCILMAN ASA HALL—A splendid piece of work and something of which The Evening News and A. T. Cowan may well be proud.

J. A. ROBINSON, proprietor of Robinson's Men's shop—A fine representative number. I think very highly of this edition of The Evening News.

J. A. ENDICOTT, realtor—This is a truly useful number, good for local business and of great value in giving easterners a correct impression of Glendale.

L. H. WILSON, chairman of the Park board—I have read the number with pleasure. I can't remember ever having seen anything better and have sent a number of copies to friends in various part of the country.

ED C. CARTER, of Pendroy's Department store—I wish to convey to you my heartiest and most sincere congratulations upon your Development number, an issue that would be a credit to any metropolitan paper, an edition that is very clear cut and concise, bringing forcibly to the minds of your readers the many advantages of Glendale and the entire San Fernando valley. It is just such enterprises as this that keep Glendale in the spotlight and help make it the "Fastest Growing City In America."

E. E. McWAIN, adjutant, Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion—The Development number of The Glendale Evening News will become a part of the publicity files at the national headquarters of the American Legion at Indianapolis. I have mailed a copy of the paper to headquarters myself. The Legion is grateful for the fine complete account of activities of the local post contained in the edition, together with the photo of the officers which was carried.

FREDERICK REINECKE, chairman of the apartment house committee, Chamber of Commerce—In behalf of the members of the apartment house committee of the Chamber of Commerce, I wish to thank you for your co-operation, as well as your liberality with your advertising space, in the manner in which you displayed the different views of our apartment houses and the general story which you printed for our benefit. Let us express our best wishes for your future success and prosperity and assure you of our support and co-operation at all times.

Realty Board President Congratulates The News

Peter Hanson, president of the Glendale Realty Board, has sent the following self-explanatory communication to The Glendale Evening News:

"November 4, 1924.

"A. T. Cowan, Editor,
"Glendale Evening News, Glendale, Calif.

"My Dear Mr. Cowan—In behalf of the Glendale Realty Board I want to thank you for your wonderful development edition, and particularly the section devoted to the Glendale Realty Board, which we feel is of inestimable value to our board and our work.

"This edition was a distinct triumph in Glendale journalism and reflects credit alike upon the editor and his staff. More than that, it likewise is a real boost for our city, and shows more than anything else could the scope and field of our various organizations and their activities. To the outsider it would leave a most favorable impression of our city so that he would surely want to come to see for himself. It is such publicity that builds up a city and you are to be greatly complimented for this masterful effort.

"Very sincerely yours,
"PETER HANSON,
"President."

C. Of C. Secretary Gives Praise To Big Edition

Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, sends the following self-explanatory letter to The Glendale Evening News:

"November 3, 1924.

"A. T. Cowan, Publisher,
"Glendale Evening News, Glendale, Calif.

"Dear Mr. Cowan—On behalf of our advertising committee, and also as a personal matter, we want to congratulate yourself and your staff in connection with your special development edition which was issued on October 31, 1924.

"It is a mighty creditable journalistic effort and should prove of excellent advertising value to Glendale and the city's institutions. The general make-up of the paper, and the complete coverage of matters regarding the growth and development and commerce of the city, were very creditably handled.

"The Chamber of Commerce hopes that a large number of our people will avail themselves of the opportunity of sending copies of this edition to relatives and friends in the east. We believe this is one of the best methods of attracting desirable people to Glendale.

"Very truly yours,
"GLENDALE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
"Howard I. Wood, Secretary."

P. J. Hayselden Declares Special Number Splendid

P. J. Hayselden, secretary of the Glendale City Planning commission, has sent the following self-explanatory communication to The Glendale Evening News:

"Glendale, Calif., Nov. 5, 1924.

"A. T. Cowan,
"Publisher The Evening News,
"Glendale, Calif.

"Dear Sir—The annual Development number of the Glendale Evening News of October 31, 1924, is such, that any newspaper publisher and staff and community may well be proud of its splendid journalistic enterprise. Your Development number merits a community much larger than Glendale, and you are to be congratulated.

"The entire make-up of the paper and particularly the photographic work, the latter not being excelled by the large metropolitan papers, deserves the commendation of its readers.

"Its advertising value and facts to the non-resident is apparent—to our own citizens it is a splendid reference in every particular to our city.

"Very truly yours,
"P. J. HAYSELDEN."

REV. COLE IN PRAISE OF NUMBER

Pastor of Central Christian Church Congratulates The Evening News

Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of the Glendale Christian church, has sent a letter to A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, praising the Development number recently issued by this newspaper. He writes:

"My dear Mr. Cowan—I wish to express my personal delight in the splendid Development issue of your paper, a number of copies of which I am sending to interested friends back east. The character of editorial, reportorial and pictorial work is as good as I have ever seen for such an undertaking. The issue does not overdo and yet covers well and impartially the whole of the activities and desirable features of our fair city.

"May I not congratulate you, also, on the continued growth and improvement of The Glendale Evening News. I have watched it now for eight years, and while I have not always agreed with all its policies, in the main it has been an outstanding piece of real achievement. You have had a clean, wholesome, and newsy publication, gotten out in a real workmanlike and readable manner.

"Accept my very best wishes for your continued success and for the constant growth of The Glendale Evening News.

"Most sincerely,
"CLIFFORD A. COLE."

The publisher values the letter from Rev. Cole and thanks him for his expressions. Also, the publisher of The Glendale Evening News wishes to thank all those whose words of appreciation appear on this page, as well as the many other persons who have expressed their praise of the Development number of this newspaper.

From Printing Expert

Another letter valued by the publisher of The Glendale Evening News is one from W. H. Granger of the Pacific coast offices of the Duplex Printing Press Co. The special number was printed on the big Duplex press installed in The Glendale Evening News building—as are the regular editions of this newspaper—and words of praise coming from a printing expert like Mr. Granger are specially valued. His letter, written at San Francisco, follows:

"A. T. Cowan, Publisher,
"Glendale Evening News,
"Glendale, Calif.

"Dear Mr. Cowan—The writer wishes to congratulate you on the splendid appearance of the annual Development number of The Glendale Evening News.

"From a standpoint of make-up and press-work this issue is as fine a piece of workmanship as the writer has ever seen.

"The untiring efforts of yourself and your associates have meant a great deal to the development of Glendale in the past and will mean more to that development in the future.

"With kindest personal regards, I am,

"Very truly yours,
"W. H. GRANGER."

Hundreds of copies of the Development number of The Glendale Evening News are being mailed east by Glendale people. There is a limited supply of the edition remaining at this office, 139 South Brand boulevard. Single copies, wrapped for mailing, are on sale at 10 cents each. The postage is 7 cents extra. Those wishing to mail copies of the big edition are urged to act before the supply is exhausted.

Serve Injunction on Tax Department Men

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair were ordered today by the District of Columbia Supreme court to show cause, on or before November 14, why they should not be enjoined from permitting the publishing of income tax statements. The validity of the law which authorized publicity is being attacked by Gorham Hubbard of Boston, who alleges that is is unconstitutional, under the fourth amendment.

Postmaster Expresses Appreciation Of Paper

D. Ripley Jackson, postmaster, expressed his appreciation of the Development number of The Glendale Evening News in the following letter, which is self-explanatory:

"Glendale, Calif., Nov. 4, 1924.

"A. T. Cowan,
"Glendale Evening News, Glendale, Calif.

"My Dear Mr. Cowan—I wish to personally compliment you on the recent Development edition of The Glendale Evening News. It surely shows the growth of the city, as I recall, when I first came to this city, I used to find a small sheet in my front yard carrying news items and some advertisements, and have been reading your publication with interest ever since.

"I also wish to express the appreciation of myself and the postoffice force for the space allowed and the wonderful cut showing a portion of the employes of this office.

"With best wishes for your continued success, I am,

"Sincerely yours,
"D. RIPLEY JACKSON,
"Postmaster."

REPUBLICANS IN CONGRESS GAINS

Party Has Clear Majority In Both Houses; May Call Extra Session

with La Follette and he with them on many issues.

In the House, the Republican, the margin of control is somewhat wider. Latest figures, with some outlying districts still in doubt indicate that the Democrats will have 184 seats, the Republicans 247, with four scattering. Still later returns may change this slightly, but these figures are approximately correct.

This allows a Republican majority over all of fifty-five seats. Take out the La Follette bloc of sixteen, and the Republicans still have a dependable working majority.

Already there are signs of Republican dissension as to the work of the sixty-ninth Congress.

It is the desire of Republican leaders to initiate as soon as possible tax reduction for the higher brackets and that the sixty-eighth Congress, through the control of the coalition by Democrats and Republican insurgents refused to bring down below 37½ per cent.

Secretary Mellon has also stated that this would be one of the first acts of the next Congress. His experts are at work on the recommendations. Some conservative Republicans believe President Coolidge should call an extra session for this purpose soon after March 4.

On the other hand, some of the Progressive-Republicans are advising against it—strongly. They point out that should an extra session of Congress be called simply to reduce taxes on big incomes such a Congress would be hailed by the Democrats as "the rich man's Congress" and lead to resentment that might counteract all of the gains made this week by "Republican conservatism." If taxes could also be reduced proportionately in the lower brackets, then it would be well and good, they say, but it is believed that taxes on smaller incomes have been reduced as much as the treasury can well stand at this time.

President Coolidge is caught between these two fires, and within three days after a great Republican triumph at the polls.

Today's belated returns from the far west indicated that President Coolidge's total in the electoral college may reach 382, New Mexico wavering to his standard. If New Mexico flops in the Republican column, Davis total would be cut to 136, leaving La Follette thirteen.

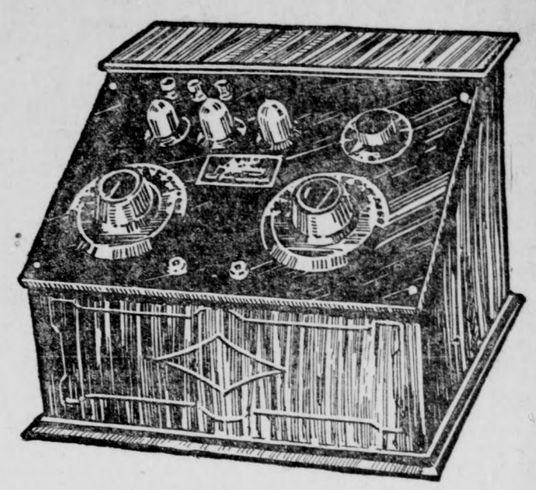
Ware NEUTRODYNE Receivers



$85 COMPLETE With Tubes And Batteries

A Super-Value in Radio!

THREE TUBES EQUIVALENT TO FOUR

Cabinet:
Attractive design in dull mahogany. The panel is built on a slant, affording comfortable resting place for the hands. Cabinet holds "A" and "B" dry cell batteries. Dimensions: 10¾ inches high, 14 inches wide, 13½ inches deep.

Circuit:
Neutrodyne reflex, using three dry cell tubes. By reflexing one of the tubes on an entirely new principle, devised and used only by Ware, the full equivalent of a four-tube circuit is secured. It has one stage of tuned radio frequency amplification, detector, and two stages of audio frequency amplification. Two tuning dials; tuning extremely simple. One rheostat controls the filament current for all tubes. Outside or inside antenna.

Accessories:
Three UV-199 or C-299 Vacuum Tubes.
"A" Battery, 4½ v. dry cell battery.
"B" Battery, five 22½ v. dry cell batteries.
Loud Speaker.

Ware Neutrodyne Receivers have won an enviable reputation on the one feature more desired in radio than any other—TONE QUALITY. And Ware tone quality is founded on correct designing and perfect craftsmanship.

With a Ware Neutrodyne, the listener is conscious only of the speaker, singer or musical instrument, forgetting the presence of the radio receiver which conveys to his ears the original rendition in all its tonal beauty.

The Ware Type T is the result of a demand for Ware quality in a receiver which can be had at a popular price and operated economically.

Man Held for Annoying Girls Out on $100 Bail

F. A. Schindelbower of 4148½ Parkdale avenue, Los Angeles, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Mrs. E. B. Hamilton of 1111 East Palmer avenue, charged with disturbing the peace, was released this morning on payment of $100 bail set by Judge Frank H. Lowe of the Glendale police court, after he had pleaded not guilty to the charge. A hearing will be had later. Complaint alleges that on or about July 8, Schindelbower disturbed the peace of Miss Helen Hamilton, aged 12, daughter of the complainant, by offering her candy at the corner of Palmer avenue and Adams street, giving her money and offering inducement for an automobile ride with him. Schindelbower, it is alleged by Mrs. Hamilton, has recently been annoying young girls in the vicinity of the Acacia school.

HONOR PINS ARE GIVEN STUDENTS

Dr. Benjamin F. Stelter of Occidental College Is Principal Speaker

The regular Thursday morning assembly at the Broadway High school was given over to the awarding of Honor Pins to students who had earned them during the year closing June, 1924.

The plan of giving honor pins to students, who have received exceptionally high grades during an entire year of their high school course, was started in 1913; this being the twelfth year in which the plan has been followed. Mrs. Ethel Hume Flood Moyse, vice-principal of the Glendale Union High school, is responsible for the adoption of this policy, and, as far as is known, Glendale is the first school in California to have worked out this scheme. Since that time many other schools have taken up the idea and it is now being generally followed.

Students, in order to be eligible for honor pins, must have an average of at least "two plus" in all of their subjects, which in percentage means an average of over 92 per cent.

The assembly was in charge of Mrs. Moyse and pins were awarded to the following students:

Summer of 1925—Girls—Ethel Adams, Catherine Elizabeth Baird, Lucile Brown Beach, Katherine Louise Bender, Ramona Ruth Bronson, Margaret Cecilia Clarke, Angelo Bernice Colton, Maryon Greaves, Marie Griggs, Lucille Harris, Virginia Harsh, Coralie Hatch, Viola Heilman, Mildred Moody, Maurine Pemberton, Mary Jo Phillips, Mary Trump, Margaret Tucker, Ruth Geis, Clarisse Dinsmore. Boys—Jack Alvord, William Eggers, Henry Grace, Kenneth Greenlaw, Richardson Jones, Jack Sturgess.

Summer of 1926—Girls—Dorothy Burch, Genevieve Burr, Marjorie Curran, Elizabeth Danforth, Alene Darby, Dorothy Dorman, Irma Frauenberger, Frances Hodgson, Josephine Hogue, Vera Hotchkiss, Harriet Jeter, Ethel Paulson, Ruth Poole, Helen Randall, Helen Sternberg, Esther Trull, Ruth Vogel, Elizabeth Walker, Daisy Whitesell, Ruth Yoder, Nyla Chapman. Boys—James Fife, Robert Ayers, Glenn Cunningham, Edwin Elsnor, Ward Foultz, Llewellyn White, Wilbur Reed , Roland Reed, Lawrence Reynolds, Paul Scott.

Summer of 1927—Girls—Juanita Arbogast, Rebecca Brant, Beatrice Case, Inez Eckart, Edith Elliott, Margaret Fox, Eleanor Harris, Winifred Hunt, Louise Jeckel, Maxine Olsen, Lois Osborne, Margaret Russell, Ruth Wilson, Frances Hatch, Marion Williams. Boys—Calvin Drake, David Hanna, Charles M. Harsh, Oscar Newby, Ennis Olmsted, Howard Smits, Charles Stipp.

Higher Awards

Students who maintain this high standard of scholarship through four years of their high school work will have their bronze pin, which is issued to them each year, replaced by a gold pin, the highest honor the high school confers, but, in any case, even though they win a pin for one year's work, they will always have this insignia of the school to wear as a mark of distinct scholarship.

As a mark of respect to the students awarded pins, the members of each class arose and stood while the pins were being awarded to members of their respective classes. Following the award of pins the assembly was turned over by Mrs. Moyse to H. H. Wiebe, chairman of the Honor Pin committee, composed of Mrs. Madge E. Stephenson, Miss Grace Rensch and Frances Ahl. Mr. Wiebe introduced Dr. Benjamin F. Stelter, head of the English department of Occidental college.

Fashion Show

Dr. Stelter, in his address, impressed upon the students that brilliant and studious people in high schools were the ones who became the leaders and reached the highest attainment in college. He mentioned the honor pin as being a definite design of the school and symbolic of the fact that a good education formed a definite pattern in the life and mind of the student. He also stated that love of beauty and orderly thinking was the basis of scholarship.

Dr. Stelter introduced what he termed an "academic fashion show." Through the efforts of members of the faculty and their friends, sixteen gowns and hoods representing the different degrees of various universities had been secured and were exhibited by members of the high school faculty. Dr. Stelter gave a very interesting history of the development of the gown as a symbol of scholastic attainment, stating that the costumes which represented these attainments had always been conservative; that they were nearly all uniform in all educational institutions and at the same time, he complimented the girls of the high school on their uniform dress, summing up the whole matter in the few terse words "that education knows no rich or poor."

Explains Degrees

The different gowns shown and explained to the students represented Bachelor of Arts degree from Stanford, California, University of Southern California, and Goucher college as well as a Bachelor of Science degree from U. S. C. and Bachelor of Philosophy from Chicago university. The Master of Arts gowns represented Occidental college, Nevada university and Oxford university, England. The most elaborate and colorful group of gowns and hoods were ones representing PH.D. from Columbia, Yale, Chicago, Cornell, Oxford and Berlin universities.

The development of the mortarboard to go with the gowns was also explained by Dr. Stelter as having grown from the old-fashioned skull cap over which the present hoods were originally worn to the hat which is now of more protection, leaving the hood to be worn down the back. He also stated that at the time of the change to the mortarboard, the tassle which had originally been fastened to the hood, was then attached to the hat and explained how these tassles should be worn on the hat to designate the different degrees and pointed out that the Doctor of Philosophy was entitled to wear a gold tassle in place of the black which indicates degrees of lesser importance. The distinction in Republicans, Attention!

During the campaign, which closed with the election last Tuesday, there was deep and general interest manifested by the citizens of Glendale, not only in the dominant issues involved, but also in the local organization of the Republican party. There was an insistent demand for permanent organization of the party on broad lines, and assurances were given that there would be opportunity at an early date for all Republicans in this city to participate in effecting such an organization.

Agreeably to those assurances, there will be a meeting at the city hall, 619 East Broadway, Saturday night, November 8, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of taking the initial steps in the organization of a permanent Glendale Republican club. All loyal Republicans of Glendale are invited to attend and participate in the proceedings. It is urged that every precinct be represented, and it is especially desired that a generous representation of the younger men and women, and veterans of the three wars be present.

Takes pills for years—finds first permanent relief in Kellogg's Bran

Have you found permanent relief from that terrible disease—constipation? The woman whose letter follows discovered—as thousands have discovered—that Kellogg's Bran succeeds when all else fails. This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:

"Gentlemen:

I am so wonderfully happy over my discovery, I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, always resorting to pills or the like, never having any permanent relief until I heard of your Krumbled Bran.

Every morning I take two tablespoonfuls before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you."

Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.

Notice the wonderful nut-like flavor. This flavor is delicious—so different from ordinary, unpalatable brans.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, made in Battle Creek, is served by America's leading hotels and clubs. Demand Kellogg's Bran. It will bring back your health. Start eating it today. Sold by all grocers.

ORPHANS DO NOT EXIST IN STATE

So Says City Representative Of Corrections Board In Special Interview

By MARIAN MARSHALL
For Southland News Service.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 7.—Figuratively speaking, there are no orphans in California. Surprising as that statement sounds to those uninitiated to the ways of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, which has oversight in these matters, Mrs. Margaret F. Sirch, local representative, with offices in the Pacific Finance building, told the writer today:

"No normal orphan child is reared in an institution in California. Now for the objector who points to orphanages and foundlings' homes, the following statement is necessary to clarify the situation.

Orphans Adopted

"All normal orphan children are placed through licensed child placing agencies in homes for adoption and so far there are more homes open than there are foundlings to supply the demand. But there are children who are not normal, or in training, or have either a father or mother living who refuse to waive their rights.

"The latter are beneficiaries of state aid, provided they are charges of the state of California. As a result of this procedure the number of children in orphanages in California has decreased year by year and the number of children placed with families and put in boarding homes has increased.

"Aid that is allowed for children in so-called orphanages, or boarding homes, when either father or mother holds claim to the child," according to Mrs. Sirch.

More Homes Than Orphans

"In practically all other cases the children are adopted instanter, or as soon as training is afforded them. There are more homes than children awaiting adoption, the two principal replacement agencies in the southland being the Children's Home Society of California, 919 East Twenty-fifth street, Los Angeles; and the Native Sons' and Daughtes' committee, 322 North Van Ness avenue, Los Angeles; as well as several sectarian organizations."

The only reason that orphanages exist, according to Mrs. Sirch, is that some place must receive the children and hold them for a specified limit while there are many who have to be trained before being placed in the better class of homes.

INCINERATOR FIRM TO LOCATE HERE

Site for Factory Purchased On San Fernando Road; Start Work Soon

Another new industry for Glendale is assured with completion of a deal for a site 150 feet on San Fernando road at the northwest corner of Sonora, announced today by J. Feigembaum, president of the Safety Concrete Incinerator Co.

The company has operated two plants in Los Angeles, one at 1018 North Western avenue, the other at 3329 Sunset boulevard, and branches at Pasadena and Huntington Park. Business in the past year has grown to such an extent that a complete new and larger plant has been necessitated and decision has been reached to build in Glendale, Mr. Feigembaum said.

Start Work Soon

The property acquired runs 250 feet back to the Southern Pacific tracks. Construction of the new plant will be commenced by December 1. Actual operation will start December 15. Twelve workman will be employed at the outset, with a weekly payroll of $600. Beside incinerators the new plant will manufacture a large variety of other products from concrete.

Mr. Feigembaum made his announcement through Secretary Howard I. Wood of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Wood and the industrial council were instrumental in getting the concrete works to locate here.

Deceased D.A.R. Woman Responsible for Ritual

Glendale residents who knew the late Mrs. Mary Howard Gridley Braly, organizer and life-regent of the General Richard Gridley chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are informed by Mrs. W. A. Sayler, who had charge of the publishing of the new year book of the chapter, that the ritual in the book was arranged by Mrs. Braly and is used at every chapter meeting. Mrs. C. W. Houston, who became regent upon the death of Mrs. Braly, and is now the only living past-regent, originally was appointed chairman of the year book committee. She, in turn, enlisted the aid of Mrs. Sayler in the compilation of the year book, and both are receiving compliments on their success.

Threshing machines, harvesters and presses are in gread demand in France and agricultural implement factories are running day and night.

COMMENT by GIL A. COWAN

In the passing hour of national election only the theatrical folk, thoughtful and kind, took occasion to honor John Philip Sousa, world's famed band leader and composer, on the occasion of his 70th birthday this week.

How many have thrilled when "The Stars and Stripes Forever" has been played by band or orchestra? It is one of his notable military marches. And how many have gone miles to see the peerless leader direct great musical organizations in person?

Sousa and his kind are passing. We are living in a jazz age which hasn't time to remember the Pryor boys of old St. Joe; why, even the great Creatore is directing a motion picture orchestra now.

And yet, during the most recent world war, Sousa was in his prime as leader of the Great Lakes Naval Training school band. When it paraded in Washington during 1918 how well the writer remembers the spirit it gave the city. Music was the basis of war-time morale. Sousa's martial music will live long as the inspiration of America!

Perhaps you have noted in the sporting pages that Glendale has an aggregation of football players in its Union high school who are hard to beat. They are fightin'est outfit you would want to meet, by the way, and if you haven't been enthused take interest now. At least two Glendale teams are due to be in the final Southern California interscholastic championship games. Last year they were "runners up" in the state championship play.

It happens that the writer yesterday referred to the efficient work being done to stamp out the pneumonic plague in Los Angeles. The disease has run its course and according to the health authorities there is no danger of an epidemic although it would not be surprising if a few more cases are isolated.

However, thousands of people in the east have become uneasy because of false reports spread by certain large newspapers. As a result it will be necessary again, as it was in the case of forest fires, drought, foot and mouth disease and other incidents, for Southern California residents to answer inquiries with the assurance that conditions have been purposely and wilfully exaggerated.

For your information the pneumonic plague is no relative of pneumonia; it is spread by filth through rodents and fleas; it is not incurable, although fatal in advanced stages; it differs from the bubonic plague in that the latter attacks the glands while the pneumonic plague affects the lungs.

Glendale is free from the disease; only ten blocks in Los Angeles where ten cases are under observation are quarantined; there have been no new outbreaks and the city, county, state and federal governments are in full charge of the situation.

The writer believes it is better to take the public into the confidence of the officials than to have false reports spread. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has prepared a printed statement which you may obtain at its offices in answering inquiries, or you may clip this comment, which covers the situation as it exists today.

KUHNLE TO GIVE SECOND RECITAL

Local Pianist Promises New Technique at Tuesday Club Night of Dec. 18

Wesley Kuhnle, Glendale pianist, of 111 West Maple street, will give his second recital Tuesday night, November 18, in the auditorium of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. A special feature of the program will be two compositions by Henry Cowell, prominent among ultra-modern writers. These compositions will be played with a new technique, Mr. Kuhnle announced.

Mr. Kuhnle will play the two selections behind a screen in order that the attention of his audience will be undisturbed. Immediately he will repeat them in full view of the audience.

European Study

Mr. Cowell and Mr. Kuhnle spent several months together in Europe in concertizing and study, Mr. Cowell's compositions causing considerable excitement.

Mr. Kuhnle will open his program with the Beethoven "Sonata Opus 90"; Schubert's "Twenty Short Dances," a set compiled by Mr. Kuhnle and Richard Buhlig; Brahm's "Ballades in D Minor, B Minor and Rhapsodie in G Minor"; "The Voice of Lir" and "The Tides of Manaunan," by Cowell; ending with the popular Chopin "Waltz in A Flat Major" and Schubert-Tausig "March Militaire." There is no charge for these recitals, admission being by invitation.

COLE READY FOR CHRISTMAS TRADE

Jeweler Will Give Service Chart on Appointment For Table Free

That every Glendale dinner table may be perfectly appointed on Thanksgiving and Christmas, R. L. Cole, jeweler, 106 East Broadway, will give everyone who calls for one a "correct service" chart, fully illustrated.

The authoritative treatise on table appointments provides all essential information on the important subjects of table equipment and arrangement, and specifies the proper tableware for use on all occasions. The most attractive and complete assortment of silverware ever assembled in his store, has been procured by Mr. Cole for the holiday patronage.

The store is the source and home of "Cole's Cheerful Credit" system of deferred payments, whereby jewelry and silverware may be purchased on a $2 down payment and paid for in small remittances arranged to suit. The store contains one of the most select stocks of standard jewelry and silverware in or near Glendale.

Every accredited brand and pattern of table silver is on display and a pretentious exhibit of fine table accessories has been procured. Community, Rogers 1847, Holmes & Edwards and similar leading brands of tableware are carried in the widest assortment of patterns. Price lists that are universal will be supplied with "Correct Service" booklets on request.

Good Roads Dinner at Oakmont Club Tonight

California, be present and make a talk. Also, it is stated that members of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association will be in attendance. Lyman Clark, president of the auto dealers' association, has requested all of the dealers to attend, it is stated. Mr. Marsh, it is announced, will speak on the matter of presentation of pink certificates of ownership of automobiles in renewing licenses for 1925.

Tickets for the banquet may be got at Federal Commercial and Savings bank, 144 North Brand boulevard, the Montrose and Tujunga drug stores and the offices of all San Fernando valley chambers of commerce.

Impromptu Campfire Staged by Boy Scouts

When Glendale was thrown in darkness for twenty minutes last night, 250 Boy Scouts gathered in a local theatre for the "Barbara Fritchie" picture, held an impromptu campfire gathering, enjoying songs and stories.

Airships flying between London and Cologne carry 300 passengers each way a month.

NEW BOOKLET HAS LOCAL PICTURES

Commerce Chamber Sends Advertising Matter of City to Hundreds

A new booklet, "Glendale in Pictures," composed of sixteen pages, each bearing photographs of one or more public buildings or objects of interest in the city, is being mailed to more than 20,000 persons in the east and middle west by the Chamber of Commerce.

Twice recently the local chamber has sent out questionnaires to Glendalians with spaces for the names and addresses of friends and relatives in the east. These have in most all cases been returned, with the result that the chamber has a new mailing list of over 20,000 names.

Special office help has been added to facilitate the mailing of the new booklet to all of these. Hundreds of copies of the Development number of The Glendale Evening News are being mailed by the chamber also.

the material of the gowns was also noted, doctor of philosophy being entitled to wear a gown of silk while those of lesser degree are made from cottor or wool.

Appreciate Speech

The appreciation of the students for Dr. Stelter's address and the informal explanation of the different gowns and hoods, representing scholastic distinction was shown in the heartiest applause ever given in the high school auditorium to any speaker.

The plan worked out for this assembly is something entirely different than from the customary method of awarding these pins, in that it ties up high school scholarship honors with those awarded by colleges and universities for similar accomplishments. It may be that Glendale High school will be followed by other schools in this, as has been done in adopting the honor pin system, which originated in Glendale High.

The Wrath To Come

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM, Copyright 1924

CHAPTER XIII

"I'm afraid there's going to be trouble there," Susan observed. "This is just the sort of thing which makes one realize, after all, that these places are rather sordid."

"I don't think you need feel like that," Grant assured her. "As a matter of fact, a very interesting situation has developed. Itash, unlike most of his race, seems to have been a little communicative to the girl. Now he has made her wildly jealous and she threatens to talk. I believe that he is terrified."

"Talk? What about?"

"Lady Susan," he said, dropping his voice a little and drawing his chair nearer to hers, "you have been your father's confidante to some extent, and I dare say you can understand that, while these Congressional Meetings are going on at Nice, we are in the center of a very hotbed of intrigue. The threads sometimes show themselves in the most unlikely places. I rather fancy that there is one of them to be caught hold of here."

"How exciting!" she murmured. "I felt sure, from something Dad said, that there was trouble brewing. Who's misbehaving, Grant?"

"The two from whom trouble was always to be apprehended," he answered. "It's all tremendously interesting, only what I can't understand is how a close-mouthed fellow like Itash could ever have let a word escape him. As a matter of fact, the girl herself said that he hadn't. And yet she knows. She has given me plenty to think about already."

They danced again once or twice. Afterwards Susan was claimed by Lymane, and Grant strolled across towards the Bar. As soon as she saw him alone, Mademoiselle Cleo rose to her feet with the obvious intention of joining him. Itash laid his hand upon her wrist, leaned forward and spoke to her fiercely. She only laughed. Grant, however, who had caught the young man's expression, was suddenly anxious. He had a feeling that the field of action had broadened, that they were no longer in the little night restaurant, but on the arena of a prospective and far-reaching battleground. Itash, his face dark with anger, had risen to his feet. Yvonne came up and touched him on the arm. He only pushed her away. She went off, laughing, with some one else. Cleo, ignoring Itash's attempts to detain her, came smiling towards Grant."

"I am afraid," he said politely, "that you are in trouble."

"Yes," she assented. "I am in trouble with my friend, Count Itash. If he knew what I had told you—what I am going to tell you—he would certainly kill me. The most amusing part of it is that, as he sits there, biting his nails and cudgelling his brains, he cannot imagine how it is that I know?"

"How do you know?" Grant asked curiously. "Have you spied on him, listened to private conversations, stolen his papers?"

"Not one of these," she answered. "Yet I know. I know of the great plot, started six years ago and now rapidly drawing near to fruition."

"Are you going to tell me about it?"

"As I learn the details, yes," she promised. "Day by day and week by week, you shall know everything. In the meantime, alas! I must make friends with him again. Unless we are friends there are some things which I shall never know. But when I do know them you shall be told. It is my will to wreck his schemes."

"Who is working with him?" Grant enquired.

She looked across the room to where the young man's venegful eyes seemed to be glaring at them from behind his spectacles.

"Your intelligence should tell you that," she replied. "Germany, of course. Well, I like Germany well enough. They are a great people. I am not so fond of England. But Itash is to be destroyed."

"Is it my fancy," Grant asked, as she rose to her feet, "but are you just a little unforgiving?"

She looked back at him over her shoulder.

"I despise all people," she said, "who forgive. I never change, I never forgive, I never forget, I never break a promise. I go back to Itash now because there are things I do not know, but he will have little joy of me. I promise you that!"

She swung across the room, laughed down at the young man who awaiting her, and sat by his side. He began talking in a low, fierce tone. She leaned back, fanning herself. Grant returned to his own table.

"A very amusing place, this," he observed. "What about another bottle of wine?"

THE GATEWAY

Dance—that is an effective way to retain the affections of one's wife!

This advice is pointed out in William de Mille's production, "The Fast Set," which is running at the Gateway Theatre today and Saturday.

"Improving the mind is not one of the indoor sports of the tea dance,' says a subtitle in the new Paramount production. But another title says, "Bachelors step where husbands will not tread," adding "P. S.—And always the latest steps."

Adapted by Clara Beranger, "The Fast Set," which is a visualization of Frederick Lonsdale's New York and London stage success, is probably the last word in diagnosing the relationship between the jazz mad set and the modern family.

The play and screen versions are considered the most unusual, and at the same time, most humorous expositions of the irresponsible set. William de Mille, as director, and Mrs. Beranger having captured the full spirited flavor of the original.

Betty Compson plays the part of an author's wife. She is interested in normal entertainments while her husband, played by Elliott Dexter, is surrounded by high brow writers. A dashing society leader, a fascinating role for Adolph Menjou, sees an opportunity for a flirtation, but the husband breaks up the alliance by bringing a social outcast to a dinner party. Zasu Pitts has the part of the human pawn.

"The Fast Set" is probably the biggest production yet made by William de Mille. It has all the color of New York's great White Way as a background for one of the most sparkling comedies of the screen.

"Certainly not," Susan declared. "Arthur has paid the bill, and we've made up our minds to go. Bobby has danced five times with that girl with the ginger hair. You have absented yourself twice with the nondescript young woman. And I have come to the conclusion that this is no place for a nice girl to spend a happy evening."

MURPHY COMEDIANS

"Peg o' My Heart" has a splendid juvenile lead in John Hughes, and Barbara Gurney is charming as Peg, who gives the name to this popular play now being offered nightly by Murphy Comedians No. 2 at their big tent theatre on San Fernando boulevard at Cedar street, Burbank. Vin Moore deserves special credit for his excellent direction of the offering.

The tent is comfortably heated and there is ample parking space for the cars of all patrons, states J. W. Davis, manager. The gratifying support of Burbank and Glendale theatre-goers makes it appear likely that Murphy Comedians Nos. 2 are in for an extended run at the present location.

"Peg o' My Heart" will continue throughout the week, the curtain rising nightly at 8:15 o'clock. The tent is opened at 7:15 o'clock to afford patrons an opportunity to select their seats, it is announced by Mr. Davis.

DOBINSON PLAYERS

"Turn to the Right," the gripping play now being offered nightly at the Tuesday Afternoon club theatre, is being talked about all over the city. The author, Winchell Smith, is regarded as one of America's leading dramatists, and the present example of his work is regarded by Smith as his best.

Mrs. Florence Dobinson, of the Dobinson Players, is to be congratulated for the competent professional cast she has assembled for the production of "Turn to the Right." The play will be given each night this week, at 8:15 o'clock, with a 2:30 o'clock Saturday matinee.

"Turn to the Right" appeals neither to "highbrow" nor "lowbrow" but is a play of average appeal that will interest every member of the family. Anyone who does not grow enthusiastic over "Turn to the Right" as it is presented by the Dobinson Players, knows very little of what is good drama.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY MENDS A PLATE

Before you can mend a plate, of course, a plate must be broken. So I shall begin this story by telling you how Uncle Wiggily broke the plate. Then you shall hear how he mended it and what happened while he was doing that.

One day, in his hollow stump bungalow, Uncle Wiggily called to Nurse Jane.

"Oh, come here! Come to the kitchen and see me make a plate stand up on the end of my pink, twinkling nose!"

"Why in the world are you making a plate stand up on your pink nose?" asked Nurse Jane, surprised like, not to say displeased.

"Well, I saw a circus juggler in the moving pictures balance a plate on his nose," said Uncle Wiggily. "And I thought if he can do that trick so can I. And I'm doing it! Come out and see me!"

"Oh, such a rabbit as he is!" sighed the muskrat lady housekeeper as she laid aside her sewing and went toward the kitchen. There she saw Uncle Wiggily dancing around, with a dinner plate on his nose.

"Wiggily!" suddenly cried Nurse Jane. "That's one of my best dinner plates! Take an old one. You might drop that and break it. Stop that trick at once, Uncle Wiggily!"

She spoke so quickly that the rabbit gentleman jumped. The plate slid off his nose, fell to the floor and was broken into three pieces. I mean the plate was broken—not the bunny's nose. For of course a nose can be broken, but Uncle Wiggily's wasn't—at least this time. But the plate was smashed.

"Oh, my lovely dinner dish!" cried Nurse Jane. "It's broken! You shouldn't have tried to balance it on your nose, Wiggily!"

"But if you hadn't spoken to me so suddenly I wouldn't have jumped, the plate wouldn't have fallen and it wouldn't have been broken, Janie," said the bunny. "But it was my fault, I suppose, for trying to act like the movies, so I'll mend your plate for you, Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy."

"Can you mend it?" asked Nurse Jane.

"Of course I can!" said the bunny. "I'll hop to the store, get a tube of glue or cement, and mend the plate."

Uncle Wiggily got the glue and then he sat down on a chair in the kitchen and began to mend the plate. He took two of the broken pieces, put glue on the edges and pressed them together. He held them until they were well fastened. Then he took up the third piece of the broken plate and glued that fast to the other two.

"Now the plate is mended," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, "I'll put it away to dry. Soon it will be as good as new. But after this I will only juggle wooden plates. If they fall off my nose they won't break." The bunny started to get up off the chair where he had been sitting to mend the broken plate, but he couldn't arise. He was held fast. Something had hold of the seat of his trousers.

"Oh, Nurse Jane! Nurse Jane!" cried the bunny. "Come here and help me to get loose!"

"What's the matter? Are you juggling more plates to see if you can break them?" asked the muskrat lady, running to the kitchen.

"No, I'm not juggling," answered Mr. Longears. "I sat down to mend your plate and I have done so. But now I can't get up! Something is holding me down. Oh, Nurse Jane, is the Fuzzy Fox or the Woozle Wolf under my chair? Are any of the bad chaps there, Janie?"

"Ha! Ha! Of course not!" laughed the muskrat lady. "You have just sat in some of the glue that ran out of the tube you used. The glue has you stuck fast to the bottom of the chair. Wait a minute and I'll pour some warm water there, and you'll be all right."

The warm water melted the glue, and soon Uncle Wiggily could get up.

"Whew!" he whistled. "I thought a bad chap had me! I'm never going to juggle plates any more!" And he never did. But if the milk pitcher doesn't pour vinegar in the sugar bowl to make it taste like lemonade, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's tooth brush.

Groceries Stream Over Streets In Truck Crash

A light truck driven by Charles A. Newman of Los Angeles was struck by a heavy oil company truck at the corner of Orange and Harvard streets, 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a load of groceries spilled over the street. Mr. Newman reported the accident to Glendale police headquarters. His truck was towed to a local garage.

An ambulance aircraft with accommodation for four patients, a medical attendant and the crew was exhibited in Europe recently.

Methodist Women

The aid society and home and foreign missionary societies of the First Methodist church met at the church yesterday for the monthly all-day meeting. The aid held a business meeting in the morning, with the president, Mrs. Ollie Lucas, in charge. At noon, luncheon was served by Circle 2 of the aid, under the leadership of Mrs. S. A. Davis. The home missionary society convened in the afternoon, with Mrs. Nellie Wheeler in charge, and the foreign missionary society with Mrs. Collins, the president, directing the meeting. The three societies then met at 2:30 o'clock for the program. The meeting opened with the singing of "Beulah Land" by the audience, and the devotional was led by Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, pastor of the church. Mrs. R. W. Bolton gave a reading, "Marilee Interprets Malachi," and this was followed by a play, "Thanksgiving Ann," presented by the foreign missionary society.

Report Meeting

It is reported eighty-two missionary societies were represented at the Presbyterial held at the Immanuel Presbyterian church in Los Angeles yesterday. The meeting opened at 10 o'clock with the devotional led by Rev. Downey, assistant pastor of the church. Mrs. Clelland of Highland Park, Los Angeles, president of the Presbyterial, presided at the meeting. Miss Margaret Hodge, vice president of the board of foreign missions from New York, was the speaker at the meeting and told interesting events of a trip through the mission fields. She visited in China, Japan, India and other places during her trip. The mission boards were recently reorganized and Miss Hodge gave a report of the reorganization, telling of her work on the board. In the afternoon an informal reception was tendered Miss Hodge and the fifteen missionaries at home on furloughs. Girls from the Forsyth Memorial school gave several musical selections. The school is under the supervision of the board of missions and girls attending it are Spanish and Mexican. Members of the misisonary society of the Glendale Presbyterian church attending the meeting were: Mrs. A. D. Smith, president; Mrs. George McDill, Mrs. Blackley, Mrs. T. A. Lewis, Mrs. Horsch, Mrs. Wiegand and Mrs. O. E. Smith.

An American-made electric generator large enough to supply light for 1,000,000 Japanese homes was recently sold to a Japanese power company.

Meet at School

An enthusiastic meeeting of the Pacific Parent-Teacher association was held at the school yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. W. G. Lauderdale, president, in charge. After the salute to the flag the official Parent-Teacher association song was sung. At the count of the mothers present, Mrs. Farley's room was again given the prize for another month. The second picture will be kept by the morning kindergarten for the next month. Mrs. Fannie O. Stone, principal of the school, gave a talk on National Education week, which will be observed from November 17 to November 23. Parents are invited to visit the school on Tuesday, November 18. Announcement was made that Mrs. W. H. Robinson will drive her automobile in the Armistice day parade, to represent the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher association. Parents were reminded of the paper drive which is in progress, and continues for the next week. It is hoped that a large number of teachers and parents will attend the teachers' reception to be given Monday night at the Harvard High school. Mrs. George R. Squires, juvenile protection chairman, gave an interesting paper on her work. Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman played Chopin's "Nocturne in G Major," first giving a word picture of the piece. She later played Grieg's "Butterfly." Dr. John Anderson gave a talk on the eyes, including in his talk their makeup, function, and also their care. An invitation to all friends of the association to attend a get-together party to be held at her home Thursday afternoon, November 13, was given by Mrs. Don Londley, 362 West Lomita street. The food sale held in the court yesterday was a decided success, and it is planned to hold another at the next meeting. The membership drive starts November 10, and all parents are urged to join. Refreshments of tea and cake were served by the courtesy chairman, Mrs. Ross Mesecher, and her committee, and a social half hour enjoyed.

Seventh Birthday

Lenore Wiebe, celebrated her seventh birthday with a party given this afternoon by her mother, Mrs. H. H. Wiebe, at their home, 438 Burchett street. Schoolmates of the little girl from the Columbus school were invited for the party. Mrs. Wiebe was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Freda Goertz. Decorations were pink, carnations being used to decorate the rooms of the home. The table was decorated with pink candles. Pink baskets and place cards were found at each place at the table. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Interesting games had been aranged by Mrs. Wiebe for the entertainment of the little guests.

LIGHTWEIGHTS ADD ANOTHER VICTORY

Defeat Covina 16-0; Lovell Runs Forty-five Yards For Touchdown

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR.
Of The Evening News Staff.

The Glendale lightweights continued their winning streak yesterday by adding a 16-0 victory over the Covina 130's in a fast game played on Broadway field. After playing four league games, the local lightweights have not as yet been scored upon; moreover, they have scored sixty points on their opponents, and have had yards made on them only three times in the four games, twice on forward passes.

Johnny Lovell was back at his fullback position, and thrilled the stands with a spectacular forty-five-yard run for the second touchdown. Lovell picked up a Covina punt in the third quarter, eluded the opposing end, and ran down the sideline for thirty yards. Just as it looked as if Lovell would be stopped by the Covina safety man, Bill Brooks turned up and took the opposing player out of the way. Lovell wheeled around the pair and continued across the goal line. He added another digit with a clean place kick.

Harris went over for the first touchdown in the opening quarter after the locals had marched down the field from their fifteen-yard line, aided by a twenty-yard run by Lovell and a recovery of a Covina fumble of a punt by Jack Alvord.

Place Kick

Glendale's third score came in the last quarter. Reed, the opposing quarter, attempted to kick from his own fifteen-yard line, but booted high and Thompson signaled for a fair catch on the Covina twenty-five-yard line. The Dynamiter babes took option of a free kick and Lovell booted the ball squarely between the uprights for three extra markers.

Both teams resorted to much punting. Harris did most of the booting for the locals, and gained on his opponent in almost every exchange of kicks. Reed, who kicked for Covina, lost much yardage when two of his kicks were sky high and went for only twenty yards and when another went out almost as soon as it had left his toe. The lineups:

Covina—0		Glendale—16

Freddie Says He Did, Kearns Says He Didn't

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Jack Kearns said early today that he had yet to receive an offer from Fred Winsor for Jack Dempsey to greet Tony Fuente, the Mexican heavyweight, in a championship bout at Culver City near Los Angeles on July 4, 1925. The offer is said to have been wired Kearns following the announcement that California had legalized ten-round bouts to a decision and twelve round bouts without decision.

Giants Trying to Get Valla, Seal Outfielder

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The New York Giants are said to be angling with the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league for the services of Gene Valla, its star outfielder. Valla is said to have been recommended by Billy Lange, famous outfielder of the old White Sox and uncle of George Kelly, the Giants' first baseman.

MICHIGAN SEEKS HONORS FOR TEAM

University Students Claim Eleven Is Second Only To Mighty Illini

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 7.—No doubt based on the theory that a gold nugget some times bears a vague resemblance to a coffee bean, the University of Michigan wishes to proclaim the fact that it has the second best team in the Western conference, the official Big Ten standings to the contrary.

Some of its followers go even farther than that. They think they have the second best team in the middle west, the Illini perforce being rated at the top. It might be mentioned that they are duly aware that Notre Dame is represented by a football team this fall, although seemingly the average conference community would be pleased to forget it.

Quotes Record

Fielding H. Yost, of course, is not a party to these immoderate claims, but he does think that his eleven is vastly better than its record indicates and quotes the following to prove it:

Michigan got four first downs against Minnesota and won, 13 to 0; Michigan got seven first downs against Illinois' 14 and scored two touchdowns against the Illini's six; Michigan was outscored in first downs by both the Michigan Aggies and Wisconsin, but won by respective scores of 7 to 0, and 21 to 0.

"We are opportunists," said Yost. "Give Michigan the ball inside midfield and apparently it will score two times out of four. Even with their great attacks, neither Illinois nor Notre Dame can show as high an average. We simply have a better team than our 39 to 14 defeat by Illinois indicates."

Washington State and Oregon Aggies to Mix

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 7.—The Aggie championship of the northwest was the title which Washington State college and O. A. C. were to decide here this afternoon on Rogers field. Both teams, hopelessly out of the conference race, were more than determined to win the game and regain lost prestige. Washington State was given a slight edge, due to a stronger offensive shown in earlier games.

Bill Tate Is Sparring Partner of Wild Bull

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Bill Tate, negro heavyweight, who was in Luis Firpo's corner on the night of the Wills fight, has been engaged as the wild bull's sparring partner, it was announced today. Firpo is getting ready for a comeback on Wednesday next against Charley Weinert, whom he knocked out in two rounds last year.

Elderly Pair Roll Extra Good Games On Bowling Alleys

In spite of their three score years, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Patterson of Glendale surprised bowling fans when they took the alleys last night at the Recreation Center and rolled up scores that equaled the average marks of the majority of bowling addicts. Mrs. Patterson rolled up an average game of 128, while her husband scattered pins to the tune of 135. The aged couple are devotees to the invigorating sport and attribute their rare agility to the fact they have made a lifetime practice of indulging in sports that call for animating, strenuous exertion.

FRANK LOCKOUT IN SPECIAL RACE

Supremacy of Ascot to Be Decided Sunday; Ormsby Is His Opponent

A $5,000 match race between "boy wonder" Frank Lockhart, idol of the Ascot speed fans, and Ralph Ormsby, mid-west champion, who dethroned Lockhart last Sunday, will be the feature event on next Sunday's card at Ascot. Ten other events, including a game of auto polo, are on the card. Auto polo, one of the most thrilling sports on the calendar, will consume 28 minutes.

The race between the two bitter rivals will be at a distance of five laps, the officials deciding that the speed which the pilots will attain will be so terrific, and the strain on the cars and tires so great, that a longer race would be too dangerous a contest to stage. A flying start will prevail, with the pole position being decided by the toss of a coin.

More than sixty daring drivers and motor-bike riders will participate in the other races. The bunch of eastern pilots, with their fast cars, which created such a sensation last Sunday, will be seen in action next Sunday. The first race will start at 3 o'clock.

Thanksgiving Race

The five-mile course, of which the speedway is a part, over which will be run the $52,000 Thanksgiving Day Ascot 250-mile road race, is now open with more than a score of cars participating in daily practice. "Cannonball" Baker, noted trans-continental record holder and stunt driver, declares an American-made semi-stock car will win the race over any special racing car made either in America or Europe.

"The course is so difficult that the glass transmissions and gears in fancy racing car will fail to stand the gaff," said Baker. "It will be the sturdy, well built, regular road car, fitted of course, with a racing body and equipment, that will op the big first prize."

Four-wheel brakes will also prove a big factor in the race, according to the racing sharks.

WHITE SOX FACE TWO HARD GAMES

St. Louis Giants Tomorrow In L. A.; Colored Stars Here Sunday

The Glendale White Sox are in for a busy week-end. In addition to playing host, along with Glendale fans, to "Red" Killefer, pilot of the pennant-winning club of Seattle, and Dan O'Leary, champion 84-year-old walker of the world, at the local park on Sunday afternoon, the team will journey to Goodyear park in Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon for the second of a series of three games with the St. Louis Giants.

Killefer, whose team worried the Sassy Seals all season and wound up by taking the pennant away from the 1923 winners, will wear a Glendale uniform Sunday afternoon and will play an outfield position for the home club. He will show the fans how he helped to win the coast pennant last season, how he assisted the Angels to win a couple of pennants when he was with that team, and how he played with the Cincinnati Reds.

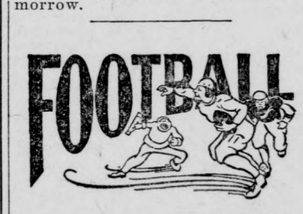
Glendale's opponents on Sunday will be the Colored All-Stars. This team took the measure of the locals the last time the two clubs clashed at the park on San Fernando road. Sunday's game will be a regular Southern California Winter league scheduled contest and figures to be a mighty fast and snappy exhibition.

O'Leary to Walk

An added attraction Sunday will be the appearance of Dan O'Leary, the man who has set many records in heel and toe contests. Dan is 84 years old, but he insists he is able to step out at a fast clip yet, and will walk around the bases twelve times in ten minutes. He has traveled on foot over most of the United States and intends to write a book about how to live long.

Ken Penner will be on the mound for the pale hose crew Sunday, with Bert Whaling, former Boston Red Sox player, doing the receiving. Manager Ray French will have a strong lineup in the field. Slowtime Evans is slated to hurl for the visitors.

Tomorrow the Sox play the St. Louis Giants at Goodyear park. The first game of the series was won by the Giants, 3 to 2. In that game Earl McNeely, star outfielder with the Washington Senators and hero of the world series, played with the Glendale club. Dick Bonelly, of the Kansas City Blues, will hurl for the locals tomorrow.



Local interest in gridiron activities will be centered tomorrow in the U. S. C.-St. Mary's game at the Coliseum, which takes the place of the U. S. C.-Stanford struggle, called off earlier in the week. Stanford, on the other hand, will meet the University of Utah aggregation at Palo Alto.

The Boars will journey to Seattle, where they will meet Washington. An upset might occur tomorrow in the California-Washington game, just as happened in the Oregon-Washington game last Saturday.

In the Southern California conference there will be nothing doing tomorrow, the various warriors resting for the big games Armistice day, when Pomona meets Whittier, probably at the Los Angeles Coliseum; Occidental and Calteck hook up at the Rose bowl, and Southern Branch goes to Redlands for a tussle with the Baptists.

Stop 'Red Grange'

The big game in the East will be Illinois and Chicago, at Stagg field, Chicago. Chicago will attempt to do something no other team has been able to do this season—stop the onrushing "Red Grange." Michigan plays Northwestern at Ann Arbor. Missouri plays Oklahoma at Norman, Ok. Iowa meets Butler at Iowa City. Nebraska rests for the game next week against Notre Dame at South Bend. Ohio State tackles Indiana at Bloomington. Notre Dame plays Wisconsin at Madison.

Yale and Harvard will provide the main attractions among the eastern colleges, Yale playing Maryland at New Haven, and Harvard mixing with Princeton at Cambridge. Cornell tackles Susquehanna at Ithaca. The Army welcomes Florida at West Point and the Navy entertains at home for Vermont. Syracuse plays Niagara at Syracuse. Columbia and New York university play at New York. Pittsburgh meets Geneva at home. Penn State plays at home with Carnegie Tech as opponents. Dartmouth rests tomorrow. Lafayette will try to break Rutgers' winning streak at New Brunswick.

Brazilian Coffee Given Boost In Importations

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The total amount of Brazilian coffee shipped to this port this year has been 97,781 bags, which compares with 54,000 bags for the entire year 1923.

WALTER CAMP SAYS

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—There seems to have been a very strong reaction to the Army-Yale game among many critics and friends of the Yale team, who are now predicting that unless Yale braces very remarkably she has not a chance in her two big games. This seems to the writer very far-fetched and hardly based upon the facts as he sees them.

There is little doubt that there are other teams superior to any of the so-called big three. In fact, this has been demonstrated by the feats of two of them, while the fact that Yale has come through undefeated is more or less colored by the fact that in four of her games her opponents gained more consistently and looked to have rather the better of the contest.

But the character of the attack which Yale displayed in mid-season last year, after a rather mediocre opening, was not the same she had used for the major portion of these games. She has opened up her line in emergencies a few times, and the writer looks to see her do this in her two big games and to see considerable improvement therefrom.

At this writing, Harvard, of the three, looks to have the call in general material, but the other two are by no means to be counted out, nor is there any certainty that in any meetings between members of the Big Three there will be any such preponderance of superiority as was indicated by Yale over Princeton last year.

BOWLING SCORES

By PAUL MILLBROOK
Of The Evening News Staff.

Wood flew thick and fast last night when two peg tilts in the Mercantile circuit were fought out on the Recreation Center alleys. In one stick duel the hard rolling Palace Grand Barbers defeated the Smokehouse squad, two out of three blocks, in one of the closest tournaments rolled on the alleys this season. The barbers were well in line for a third victory, but Holmes, on whose final roll the third block depended, caught a "big four" on a split hit, thus dropping the last block to the Lady Nicotines by eleven pegs.

Leuthner, of the Smokers, hung up the highest individual score by spilling 575 sticks. Kell, of the tonsorial artists, finished close behind him with a woodpile of 520 pins.

In the other stick fracas decided last night, the Glendale Bootery finished in the cellar with the Coast to Coast Army aggregation. Neustadt, of the Coasters, upheld his reputation as the star sphere propeller of his club by tacking up a high mark of 534. Gorell, of the foot-fitters, created the next best woodpile by flopping 530 sticks. The last block of the wood duel was annexed by the Coasters by the narrow margin of nine pins.

Tonight Psenner Bros. clash with the Red Feather Materials outfit and the Central Cleaners will lock horns with the Brown Drug Co. in a dual peg battle that promises to be close, fast and furious.

BOXING BILL TO CARRY, IS BELIEF

Promoters Begin to Line Up Battles for Holidays, Building Arenas

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—With the apparent safe passage of the twelve-round boxing bill in California, preparations were being made to put the measure into effect. The voters of California approved the measure by a majority of from 20,000 to 25,000.

It will become effective about the middle of December, when the official state count will be completed. The bill calls upon the governor to appoint a state athletic commission of three members within fifteen days, who will serve four years without pay. Following their appointment, no boxing or wrestling match may be conducted in the state without a permit. The commission may authorize ten-round decision bouts and 12-round no-decision bouts.

Building Arena

William H. McCarthy, former president of the Pacific Coast league, has been suggested as the "Landis" of the commission.

Already a $300,000 boxing arena is under way in Los Angeles and as soon as passage of the measure is assured a similar project is to be launched in San Francisco.

Boxing promoters are becoming active and a lively resumption of the game is expected to follow placing the act in effect.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP by FAIR PLAY

Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—As the writer predicted some time ago, Luis Firpo has clinched a mid-November date with Charley Weinert. Will the battle be held in New York? It will not.

Can you imagine what the New York boxing commission would do to that bout? Muldoon, in all pride of his strength, would be called upon to demonstrate that the half-Nelson, the hammerlock and all the other good holds of the eighteenth boxing century are still effective in casting spotted boxing attractions to the mat.

Firpo says not only will he meet Weinert in Jersey but two other opponents yet to be named. This latter remark caused even the Jersey commission to raise its head. For Luis, if let to run wild, can be relied upon to do himself very well in the matter of opponents.

The Jersey authorities certainly do not wish him to drag any one-armed or one-legged opponents into the ring.

Perhaps Firpo is trying to make Tex Rickard jealous. Tex has not softened to the sort of opponents Luis wants to meet and Tex's list of candidates when shown to Luis caused the big fellow to emit roars of grief and anger that could be heard in Central Park.

To-Night's Card

Johnny Adams and Tommy Carter box for the lightweight championship of the Pacific coast tonight in the main event at Hollywood Legion stadium, but Babe Ruth will be the main attraction. The Sultan of Swat will officiate as referee for one of the preliminary bouts. Nick Neuman and Tommy Richards meet in the semi-windup. K. O. Kelly and Young Bello swap blows in the special spot. Other bouts will be: Johnny Grelle and Mickey Dolan, Joe Stiers and Joe Avery, Jimmy Roberts and Mickey White and Angelo Payo and Skeeter Hennessy.

Golden Bears Meet Huskies In Seattle

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Confident they can humble the Huskies at the stadium in Seattle Saturday, the Golden Bears of California worked out on Multnomah field today prior to taking the Great Northern train this afternoon for Seattle. The Bears arrived last night.

Andy Smith watched his entire squad of 29 men unlimber on the sawdust covered Multnomah field. The Bears showed plenty of zip despite the soaking rain which fell all morning.

The Californians used to dry, fast field, were hopeful that the blustery weather now prevalent in the northwest would pass over in time to provide a good footing on the stadium field for the game.

A FEW FACTS

I came to Glendale Calif. 2½ years ago; I purchased a well built new four-room home, close in, on West Lex. It was considered a good buy at the price $5000. I have lived there and improved it in every respect. I was offered $5300 five mo. ago, but I did not have any reason to sell. My business is now located in San Fernando. "I must sell", I will take $4600, good terms. If it suits you and you don't buy it, "You don't want a home." During my absence I have arranged for you to see it by calling Glen 3427-J.

I WANT TO SELL MY HOME.

SERVICE STATION OPENS TOMORROW

Pacific Northwest Institution To Give Quart Oil With 5-Gallon Purchase

Offering a souvenir to each man or woman purchasing five gallons of gasoline, the Pacific Northwest service station, 1101 North Pacific avenue, corner Dryden street, will have a formal opening tomorrow and Sunday. One quart of eastern oil also will be given free with each five-gallon gas purchase.

The service station is operated by C. T. Barrow and C. P. Ingerson, both of whom came from Marysville, Mo., Mr. Barrow about one year ago and Mr. Ingerson about six months ago. Julian and Richfield gasoline will be sold. A free crank-case service is maintained and tires, tubes, accessories, oils and greases dispensed.

Circle Club Members Assemble at Church

The Christian Circle club met last night at the First Methodist church with a large attendance. Miss Soper gave the first of a series of talks on the life of Christ, stressing particularly his childhood and early manhood. Miss Helen Porter, chairman of the social committee, introduced a novel scheme of getting acquainted. Meetings of the club are for the benefit of business girls and high school girls of Glendale. Those desiring to attend the meetings and having no way of getting home will be taken care of by the transportation committee. Supper was served at 6 o'clock. Thursday night the ministers and their wives will be guests of the club.

H. S. Burn to Visit Cities Through East

H. S. Burn, business partner of S. P. Davis, real estate brokers, and owners of the Burn-Davis block, has left over the Santa Fe for an extended vacation trip through the east. Mr. Burn will visit St. Louis, Detroit, Rochester, New York City, Washington, D. C.; Florence, S. C.; which is his boyhood home; Jacksonville, Miami Beach, Tampa and New Orleans. In South Carolina, Mr. Burn will visit with his mother. He will be away from Glendale two or three months.

MINISTERS PLAN UNION MEETING

Community Chest Endorsed; Churches to Observe Educational Week

The Glendale Ministerial association met Thursday morning in the parlors of the Central Christian church, with Rev. W. E. Edmonds presiding. Rev. M. M. Johnson, the new minister of the Broadway, Methodist Episcopal church, was elected secretary, to succeed Rev. Millikan. Endorsement of the American Educational week, plans of the Community Welfare Chest and of the American Legion's plans for Sunday observance of Armistice day were voted. This association is composed of pastors of the city, and meets regularly on the first Wednesday morning of each month at 10:30 o'clock, at the Central Christian church. All ministers are urged to attend.

A definite date for the John Brown union meetings to be held in January is asked for of the evangelist, and plans for his coming are under way.

Gold Star Mothers Are Asked to Call Legion

E. E. McWain, adjutant of Glendale post No. 127, American Legion, is anxious to get in touch with all gold star mothers residing in Glendale before the Armistice day celebration. He asks all gold star mothers, whether long time residents of Glendale or newcomers, to call him by telephone at Glendale 92.

High School Teacher Victim of Pickpocket

Miss Frances Blanchard, a teacher at the Glendale Union High school, reported today her pocketbook was rifled at the Harvard High school last night, while the city lights were out, and a check for $168 stolen, together with a street car ticket and some small change.

Girls Given Chance to Join Girl Scout Troop

Girls over 12, living in the Grand View district, will have the opportunity of joining a Campfire Girls' troop, Saturday afternoon, when an organization meeting will be held at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Zitlow, 1014 Thompson avenue.
